The Report contains information on the conduct by which the individual recommendations formulated contained in the principles and application criteria of the Corporate Governance Code were actually applied in the period to which the Report refers.

In addition, since, starting from financial year 2021, the Corporate Governance Code will be replaced by the new 2020 Corporate Governance Code, this Report contains some information on the activities already undertaken by the Company for the implementation, during the next exercise, of the new recommendations.

1. NEXI’S PROFILE AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE SYSTEM

1.1 PROFILE

Nexi Group<sup>[1]</sup>, a leader in Italy’s paytech sector, provides services – through its partner banks – to some 900,000 merchants and 30 million cardholders. The business builds on long-standing relations with affiliate banks, which together account for approximately 80% of the national banking sector, in terms of number of branches<sup>[2]</sup>.

Nexi’s history dates back to 1939, when six Italian banks formed a single company (ICBPI – Central Institute of Italian Cooperative Banks) set up in order to create a single technological facility providing services supporting Italian cooperative banks.

In December 2015 the entry of a new major shareholder, Mercury Italy Srl<sup>[3]</sup>, triggered an important transformation process, which led to Nexi's establishment: the banking sector's paytech provider. Over time, the Company has gradually expanded its offer through a growth based both on the organic development of new products and services, and on synergistic takeovers (some of the most relevant ones include CartaSì SpA, Basilichi SpA, Mercury Payment Services SpA).

Consistent with Nexi Group’s transformation process, in October 2020 the Boards of Directors of Nexi Payments SpA and Mercury Payment Services SpA (both Nexi Group companies), approved the draft project of a partial, proportional spinoff of Mercury Payment Services to Nexi Payments, by transferring – to Nexi Payments – Mercury Payment Service’s payment services branch, which specifically includes acquiring, processing and issuing activities. The draft project was endorsed by the shareholders on December 29, 2020. Following the spinoff, Mercury Payment Services shall no longer be a Payment Institute; its activities will focus on the existing “Card Manufacturing” and “Contact Center” Business Units. The spinoff shall be effective as of April 1, 2021.

In October 2020, Nexi and SIA SpA (a leading European hi-tech company operating in technological services and payment infrastructure sector, owned by Cassa Depositi e Prestiti via CDP Equity) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (“MoU”) aimed at integrating the two groups via merger by incorporation of SIA into Nexi. The MoU was also signed by the major shareholders – CDP Equity and FSIA FSIA Investimenti Srl for SIA and Mercury UK HoldCo Limited for Nexi.

In November 2020, Nexi signed a binding framework agreement with Nets, one of the foremost pan-European paytech companies, which holds a leading position in northern European countries and is owned by a syndicate of private equity funds led by Hellman & Friedman. The purpose of the agreement is the integration of the two groups via a merger to be carried out on an all-stock basis.

On 3 March 2021 the shareholders' meeting approved, on an extraordinary basis, in compliance with the provisions of Article 49, paragraph 1, letter g), of the Issuers' Regulation for the purposes of the takeover bid exemption (so-called whitewash procedure) the cross-border merger by incorporation of Nets Topco 2 Sarl into Nexi SpA, It should be noted that the Merger has already been approved by the shareholders' meeting of Nets Topco 2 S.à r.l.

On 9 March 2021, the European Commission issued its authorization for the proposed merger between Nets and Nexi.

Concurrently, following the approval by the Boards of Cassa Depositi e Prestiti, CDP Equity, Mercury UK HoldCo Limited, SIA and Nexi, the companies signed the final agreement on the merger by incorporation of SIA into NEXI (the “Merger” and the “Framework Agreement”, respectively), consistent with the terms and conditions set forth under the Memorandum of Understanding signed and announced in October 2020. The closing of the Merger is subject to the performance of conditions precedent which are standard for this type of transaction.

The Framework Agreement envisages that, should the closing of the merger by incorporation of Nets into Nexi (“Nets Transaction”) be completed before the closing of the transaction with SIA, CDP Equity shall hold the right to resolve on a capital increase of SIA, aimed at balancing the dilutive effect on its future stake in Nexi’s capital, resulting from the closing of the Nets Transaction.

Should the Merger be completed after the closing of the Nets Transaction, a Shareholders' Agreement shall be signed by Mercury UK HoldCo Limited, CDP Equity and FSIA together with Nexi’s current shareholders.

Nexi was listed on the MTA on April 16, 2019 and joined the FTSE Mib index in June 2019.

Nexi as the Parent Company, pursuant to articles 2497 and subsequent of the Italian Civil Code, manages and coordinates subsidiaries Nexi Payments, Mercury Payment Services and Help Line SpA.

Nexi does not qualify as “SME” pursuant to article 1(1) (wc.1) of the TUF.

2020 was also a year of strong acceleration of the company's sustainability strategy. All categories of stakeholders were involved to update the materiality matrix, which fully reflects the priorities relevant to the Group. The Sustainability Policy was approved, which establishes the reference principles on which the management of environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues is based. The Enterprise Risk Assessment process was strengthened, integrating the sustainability aspects and the commitment was made to progressively adhere to the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures recommendations of the Financial Stability Board for reporting on risks and opportunities deriving from the climate change. The inventory of greenhouse gas emissions has been revised, extended and made more transparent, with the aim of defining emission reduction targets in accordance with the Science Based Target Initiatives criteria, aligned with the Paris Accords.

In 2020, the Company was included for the first time in the ESG ratings of S&P Global, CDP and Standard Ethics.

The Shareholders’ Agreement regulates, among other things:

- Mercury’s governance;
- Specific limitations to the possible transfer of Mercury shares;
- Nexi’s governance;

Investors undertake to make sure that when the Company’s Board of Directors is appointed:

- (i) Mercury shall submit a slate of thirteen candidates, three of whom designated by Advent, three by Bain, two by Clessidra, three jointly by Advent and Bain (all meeting the due independence criteria set forth by the Corporate Governance Code) and two by Advent and Bain, following talks with Clessidra, without prejudice to different arrangements set forth under the agreements accepted by Mercury within the context of the Nets Merger and SIA merger, which shall be enforced, respectively, as of the effective date of the Nets and the SIA mergers;
- (ii) at the Company’s shareholders’ meeting that must appoint the Board of Directors, Mercury shall:
  - (a) propose that the number of members of the Board of Directors shall be thirteen and vote in favour of said proposal;
  - (b) vote for the slate submitted by Mercury itself;
  - (c) propose to appoint as Chairperson of the Board of Directors one of the two Directors designated by Advent and Bain, following talks with Clessidra, and vote in favour of said proposal.
- (iii) if, following the Nets Merger and/or the SIA Merger, Mercury shall not be able to designate a director of Nexi’s Board among the ones freely appointed by each Investor, Clessidra shall be the first of such Investors, depending on the circumstances, to:
  - a. appoint a Nexi Board independent director; or
  - b. lose its right to appoint a Nexi Board director;
  - c. for the sake of clarity, as long as Mercury shall be able to designate a Nexi Board director among the ones freely appointed by each Investor, then Advent, Bain and Clessidra shall in turn hold the right to appoint one of the latter.
- iv) without prejudice to the circumstance under which Nexi directors must be appointed by an Investor, the directors designated by Advent and the directors designated by Bain in Mercury shall jointly appoint the individual designated by Mercury as a Nexi director.

Operation of the Board of Directors

As for the operation of Nexi's Board of Directors, Investors and Mercury undertake to do whatever is in their power to ensure that:

- (i) the Board shall discuss and resolve on all matters concerning the fundamental strategic and operational profiles associated with Nexi and its subsidiaries, including the following topics:
  - (a) approval or amendment of multi-year business plans and yearly budgets;
  - (b) appointment, removal and remuneration of the Board of Directors' Chairperson (if the relevant resolutions have not been passed by the Shareholders' Meeting), of the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and other senior managers;

- (ii) should a Director cease to hold office, regardless of the reason, they shall be replaced by an individual designated by the same Investor that designated the Director no longer in office.

The Mercury Shareholders' Agreement does not envisage qualified majorities at Board meetings, hence the Board of Directors shall be deemed validly constituted if the majority of its standing members are in attendance and shall resolve through a majority of the Directors in attendance. In the event of a tie, the prevailing vote shall be that of the meeting's Chair.

Membership of the Board of Statutory Auditors

The Investors have undertaken to make sure that when the Board of Statutory Auditors is appointed, Mercury shall:

- (ii) vote in favour of the aforesaid slate at the appropriate meeting.

Operation of the Shareholders' meeting

The Shareholders' Agreement requires no qualified majorities at shareholders' meetings, hence the attendance and approval quorums are the ones set forth under the Italian Civil Code.

With reference to specific limitations to the possible sale of Nexi shares, the Mercury Shareholders' Agreement establishes that until Mercury holds Company shares, it can sell said shares to third parties (hence to parties other than their subsidiaries, controlling parties or parties under joint control) solely: (i) with the consent of Advent and Bain, should the provision allow the Investors to enjoy a return on their initial investment in Nexi (to be calculated presuming that 100% of the Company's capital will be sold at the price per Nexi share indicated in the latest distribution) which can be no lower than the minimum threshold agreed upon by the Parties based on specific parameters (the "Minimum threshold"); and (ii) with the consent of all Investors (therefore Advent, Bain and Clessidra) should the return on the initial investment in Nexi fall below the Minimum Threshold.

Should, upon expiry of the third year of the listing of the Company shares, Mercury still hold Nexi shares, or before said expiry – if, based on the average market price for seven days running, the value of Nexi’s capital fall below the Minimum Threshold – each Investor shall have the right to ask that each Investor (or one of their entirely owned subsidiaries) be distributed a number of Nexi shares that is proportional to the stake in Mercury’s capital directly or indirectly held by each (or, alternatively, the proceeds resulting from Mercury’s sale of Nexi shares).

Should, following said distribution, an Investor directly or indirectly hold a share exceeding 5% of the Company’s capital, said Investor shall sign an agreement that includes: (i) an orderly market clause that aims to ensure that the sale of the stake comprising the shares distributed as above take place in such a way as to guarantee an orderly functioning of the market, and (ii) a co-sale right to each of the other Investors that, as at such date, hold at least 5% of the Company’s capital. The aforesaid undertakings shall not include the Investors that, as at said date, directly or indirectly hold less than 5% of the Company’s capital.

B. IRREVOCABLE MERCURY UNDERTAKING

Also within the Nets Merger context, on November 15, 2020, Mercury signed an Irrevocable Undertaking, under the English law (the “Irrevocable Undertaking”) through which it pledges, before the Company, to (i) vote in favour of the Nets Merger, (ii) not to sell the Nexi shares it holds before complying with the commitment referred to under sub (i) (save for specific cases of authorised sale), and (iii) not to perform any activity that may somehow hinder the positive outcome of the Merger, as detailed below.

The following are the relevant provisions of the Irrevocable Undertaking concerning Nexi’s governance and the specific limitations to the possible sale of Nexi shares. Please refer to the essential information pursuant to article 122 of the TUF and article 130 of the Issuers Regulation, available on Nexi’s website at www.nexi.it for further information on the Irrevocable Undertaking.

Voting commitment

At Nexi’s shareholders’ meeting convened in late February to resolve on the Merger (the “Meeting”), Mercury undertook to exercise (or compel to exercise) all votes related to Nexi Shares as follows:

- (i) Mercury shall vote in favour of each resolution (amended or otherwise) necessary for implementation of the Nets Merger, as indicated in the summons notice of the Meeting and in the reports to be disclosed by Nexi, containing, among other things, a summary report on the Nets Merger;
- (ii) Mercury shall vote against any proposal to adjourn the Meeting or to amend the merger project submitted by any Nexi shareholder; and, under all circumstances,
- (iii) Mercury shall undertake to not renounce, revoke or modify said exercise of its voting right or of any other power for the entire term of the Irrevocable Undertaking.

Transactions on Nexi shares

Mercury may not sell or transfer Nexi shares, establish, grant or guarantee any option, obligation or other warranty on Nexi shares, nor enjoy any other right associated with Nexi shares unless it has fulfilled the tasks referred to under the paragraph above, without prejudice to the possibility of executing any transaction classified as “Excluded Transfer” pursuant to the Irrevocable Undertaking.

Commitments associated with the Nets Merger

With reference to any existing or proposed transaction that competes or that may otherwise hinder the Nets Merger or any of stage of the aforesaid (an “Alternative Transaction”), Mercury undertakes:

- (i) not to exercise any voting right connected to Nexi shares for voting in favour of an Alternative Transaction;
- (ii) not to take any action (other than in the event of an Excluded Transfer) that may undermine the Nets Merger (without prejudice to the fact that such obligation shall not prevent the possibility of voting in favour of the possible SIA Merger);

- (iii) not to accept, with reference to any Nexi share, any submitted offer associated with an Alternative Transaction;
- (iv) not to publicly express its support to any Alternative Transaction;
- (v) not to encourage any solicitation, nor start, continue or encourage any talks and/or enter into any agreement or contract, under any circumstance, with any other party concerning any Alternative Transaction;
- (vi) to exercise the voting rights associated with Nexi shares in such a way as to allow the Nets Merger to become effective (including meeting the conditions the Nets Merger entails) and to oppose any action that may cause failure to meet any of the conditions the Nets Merger entails;
- (vii) not to enter into any contract or agreement or allow that any form of obligation with any party may arise, and not to provide any declaration of intent, to perform any of the forbidden actions indicated in the paragraphs above, including through third parties, and that may somehow limit or hinder the effectiveness of the Nets Merger or the ability to comply with all that is set forth under the Irrevocable Undertaking;
- (viii) not to take any action that may hinder the positive outcome of the Nets Merger and to take all the actions – not forgetting to take any action falling within its powers, including as a Company shareholder – necessary for implementing the Nets Merger, while always being consistent with each one of the requirements provided for by the law and applicable regulations, or with the requirements provided for by the relevant supervisory authorities (without prejudice to the possibility of performing Excluded Transfers),

C. NETS SHAREHOLDERS' AGREEMENT, LOCK-UP AGREEMENTS, MANAGEMENT SELL-DOWN AGREEMENT

On November 15, 2020, within the scope of the Nets Merger, Evergood H&F Lux S.à r.l., (“H&F”), AB Europe (Luxembourg) Investment S.à r.l., (“AB Europe”), Eagle (AIBC) & CY SCA (“Eagle SCA”) and, together with AB Europe, the “AB Investors” and the AB Investors, jointly with H&F, the “Investors”) and Mercury signed an agreement, under English law, which governs, inter alia, Nexi’s governance and the limitations to the possible transfer of Nexi shares, as further detailed below.

On December 4, 2020, the Investors and Mercury signed an agreement amending said Shareholders' Agreement, through which such parties amended and adjusted some of the relevant provisions (as last amended, the “Nets Shareholders' Agreement”).

On the same date, Nexi signed – respectively and individually – a lock-up agreement with (i) AB Europe; (ii) Eagle; (iii) H&F; (iv) Bamboh Co-Investments ApS (“Bamboh”); (v) EmpCo A/S (“Empco”); (vi) nInvestment 1 ApS (“Danish Manco”); (vii) nInvestment Lux S.C.Sp. (“nIv Lux”); (viii) Stargazer Invest ApS (“Stargazer” and, together with Bamboh, Empco, Danish Manco e nIv Lux, the “Nets Vehicles”) (the “Lock-up Agreements”).

Finally, still on November 15, 2020, the Investors and the Nets Vehicles signed an agreement (the “Management Sell-Down Agreement”) whose purpose was, inter alia, to transfer and distribute Nexi shares.

The relevant provisions of the Nets Shareholders' Agreement concerning Nexi’s governance and the specific limitations to the transfer of Nexi shares, are described below, as well as the Lock-up Agreements and the Management Sell-Down Agreement. Please refer to the essential information pursuant to articles 122 of the TUF and 130 of the Issuers Regulation, available on Nexi’s website at www.nexi.it for further information on the Nets Shareholders' Agreement.

Membership of Nexi’s Board of Directors

As long as – pursuant to the applicable laws and to Nexi’s Articles of Association – Mercury and/or any AB Investor hold the right to submit to the shareholders' meeting a slate of candidates for the appointment of Nexi’s directors, they shall have to submit said slate (or vote in favour of said slate, should, for example, it be submitted by Nexi’s Board of Directors) in accordance with the following provisions:

- (i) Before the effective date of the SIA Merger, including (a) two candidates designated by H&F, as long as it holds a share of at least 70% of the shares issued to it within the scope of the Nets Merger, or (b) a candidate designated by H&F, as long as it holds a share between 50% and 70% of the shares issued to it within the scope of the Nets Merger.
- (ii) After the effective date of the SIA Merger, including (a) two candidates designated by H&F, provided that it holds a share of at least 70% of the Nexi shares held as at the effective date of the SIA Merger (provided that, before the effective date of the SIA Merger, H&F has not lost its right to designate two candidates, in accordance with paragraph (i)(a) above, or (b) a candidate designated by H&F, as long as H&F itself holds a share of at least 50% /and, if paragraph (ii)(a) is applicable, consistent with said share, less than 70%) of the Nexi shares held as at the effective date of the SIA Merger.
- (iii) Under any circumstance, should Mercury submit said slate of candidates, it shall make sure that the candidates indicated by H&F be placed in a position that ensures their appointment if said slate wins the highest number of votes at the Nexi Shareholders' meeting convened to resolve on the appointment of Nexi Board directors.
- (iv) Should, regardless of the reason, one or more of the candidates indicated by H&F cease to hold their office before their term expires, Mercury shall exercise its powers as Nexi shareholder, to the extent permitted by law, so as to ensure that Nexi's Board be convened in order to replace, pursuant to article 2386 of the Italian Civil Code, the director no longer in office with a director designated by H&F.
- (v) Should the stake held by H&F drop below the thresholds referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii) above, H&F shall promptly, depending on the case, make sure that both Nexi directors it has designated resign from office (or the parties shall have to promptly cooperate and make sure that, depending on the case, one or both such individuals be removed from office), without prejudice to the fact that, should this provision be enforced and one of Nexi's directors designated by H&F before the relevant stake reduction be Mr Bo Nilsson, H&F shall not be compelled to make Mr Bo Nilsson resign (or the parties shall not be compelled to cooperate to make Mr Bo Nilsson resign) from office and he shall continue to be a Nexi director should such continuation be approved by each of the following: H&F, Nexi's CEO, Nexi's Board Chairperson and, as long as Mercury is a Nexi shareholder, Mercury itself; if Mr Bo Nilsson shall continue to be a Nexi director under such circumstances, he shall no longer be considered a Nexi director designated by H&F.

As long as Mercury and/or any AB Investor holds the aforesaid right, no other party of the Nets Shareholders' Agreement shall submit a slate of candidates to Nexi's Board of Directors, without prejudice to the fact that, should Mercury and the AB Investors lose the aforesaid right, H&F may, but shall not be compelled to, submit its own slate of candidates in accordance with the laws, with Nexi's Articles of Association and/or with the CDPE Agreement (as defined below).

The candidates designated by H&F do not have to meet any independence or gender-related (or other requirement, pursuant to the applicable laws, other than those that all Nexi directors must meet), without prejudice to the fact that, under all circumstances, for the entire period H&F holds the right to designate two candidates to be appointed on Nexi's Board of Directors, one of them must be chosen between (i) Mr Bo Nilsson or (ii) a suitable independent candidate.

As long as at least one director designated by H&F is a director on Nexi's Board, the parties shall make sure that said actor be a member of: (i) Nexi's strategic committee; and (ii) each committee of Nexi's Board of Directors in which one or both AB Investors and/or Mercury are represented from time to time.

CDPE Agreement

The Investors and Mercury undertake to do all that is reasonably in their power to reach, in good faith, a Shareholders' Agreement they can enter into along with, among others, CDP Equity SpA (the "CDPE Agreement") when signing legally binding documents related to the SIA Merger, without prejudice to the following:

- (i) the CDPE Agreement shall give H&F the right to designate, from time to time, the number of Nexi directors provided for by the Nets Shareholders' Agreement, in accordance with terms and conditions that must not be less favourable than the ones set forth under the Agreement itself;

- (ii) insofar as the CDPE Agreement includes the provisions governing the sell-down agreements concerning Nexi shares, such provisions shall be consistent with the relevant standards provided for under the Nets Shareholders' Agreement;
- (iii) the CDPE Agreement shall grant H&F the right to take part, on a pro-rata basis, in any sale of Nexi shares by the AB Investor and/or Mercury to CDP Equity SpA pursuant to any contractual right granted to CDP Equity SpA

Sell-Down

Pursuant to the Nets Shareholders' Agreement the parties acknowledge and agree that, in order to ensure an orderly sale of their Nexi shares, each Investor and/or Mercury may start – either individually or jointly with the other parties, in one single transaction or in several – a transfer of Nexi shares, which shall be subject to specific terms and conditions and to a procedure defined under the Nets Shareholders' Agreement (the “Transfer Procedure”).

Without prejudice to the lock-up commitments taken, each Nexi shareholder, including the shareholders not taking part in the Transfer Procedure, undertakes to enter into lock-up agreements, based on ordinary conditions, with reference to the Nexi shares held (the “Subscriber Lock-Up”), without prejudice to the following:

- (i) no Subscriber Lock-Up can by any means limit the transfer to parties related to them that have joined the Subscriber Lock-Up or other transfers held safe by the Nets Shareholders' Agreement;
- (ii) no Subscriber Lock-Up applicable to one of the parties may last more than 90 (ninety) calendar days starting from the effective date of the transfer proposal (possibly lasting less); and
- (iii) insofar as the Subscriber Lock-Up of one of the parties related to said transfer proposal be dissolved, renounced or completed, even the Subscriber Lock-Ups entered into by other Nexi shareholders related to the very Transfer Procedure shall be automatically dissolved, renounced or completed with the same terms and conditions.

Regarding the specific limitations to the possible transfer of Nexi shares, the Nets Shareholders' Agreement envisages that until the effective date of the Nets Merger, the parties shall reciprocally undertake (i) not to purchase or transfer, and to make sure that the parties related to them do not purchase or transfer, Nexi shares, save for the transfers explicitly authorised by the Agreement itself, and (ii) not to resort to the obligation of launching a mandatory public takeover bid pursuant to articles 106 and subsequent of the TUF, concerning the Nexi shares held by any of the parties, either individually or jointly.

Under all circumstances, Mercury shall have the right to (i) execute specific transactions on its Nexi shares, should said transactions derive from obligations taken pursuant to the Nets Shareholders' Agreement or if previously disclosed by H&F, (ii) transfer to Fides SpA a part of Nexi shares if specific conditions come about, and (iii) fulfil any duty it has related to Nexi shares, pursuant to any call option granted after the effective date of the Nets Shareholders' Agreement, in accordance with the specific terms and conditions and all as regulated under the Nets Shareholders' Agreement.

Should Mercury propose to transfer any of Mercury's Nexi shares, in accordance with the above and whenever a lock-up commitment taken by a Nexi shareholder (the “Subscriber's Lock-Up”) is in force and related to Mercury's Nexi shares, said transfer shall be subject to the assignee's acceptance of the Subscriber's Lock-Up regarding Mercury's Nexi Shares being transferred.

Furthermore, the parties acknowledge and agree that, respectively, neither Nexi shares held by the Investors, nor Nexi shares held by Mercury be transferred on and starting from the date the Nets Shareholders' Agreement was signed, until:

- (i) the date falling exactly six months after the effective date of the Nets Merger, with reference to 100% of the Nexi shares held, depending on the case, by the Investors or by Mercury;
- (ii) the date falling exactly 12 months after the effective date of the Nets Merger, with reference to 66% of the Nexi shares held, depending on the case, by the Investors or by Mercury; and

- (iii) the date falling exactly 24 months after the effective date of the Nets Merger, with reference to 33.4% of the Nexi shares held, depending on the case, by the Investors or by Mercury.

Without prejudice to the above, the parties shall, under all circumstances, be allowed to complete certain transfers specifically identified pursuant to the Nets Shareholders' Agreement; yet the transfer cannot be prohibited by the terms and conditions of the lock-up commitments taken by Nexi shareholders.

Finally, should the effective date of the SIA Merger occur within 24 months of the effective date of the Nets Merger, the provisions set forth under the paragraph above shall cease to be effective for Mercury, which acknowledges and accepts that no transfer of its Nexi shares shall be allowed starting from the date of the Nets Shareholders' Agreement, until:

- (i) the date that falls exactly six months after the effective date of the SIA Merger, with reference to 100% of the Nexi shares held, depending on the case, by the Investors or by Mercury; and
- (ii) without prejudice to the provisions set forth under paragraph (i) above, with reference to 50% of Nexi shares held by Mercury, the 12 months following the effective date of the SIA Merger, it being understood that this provision shall not limit the transfer of Nexi shares for a price per share exceeding Euro 15.50 for each Mercury share.

Lock-up agreements

Pursuant to the Lock-Up Agreements, the Investors and the Nets Vehicles, each insofar as it concerns them, including on behalf of parties they control, that control them, under joint control or acting, on behalf of them, undertake, in the absence of a prior written consent by Nexi, not to:

- (i) directly or indirectly offer, sell, negotiate the sale, pledge or grant any guarantee on, grant any option on or otherwise distribute (or committing to any transaction that aims to or may reasonably be deemed to be aiming to distribute) any share subject to lock-up or any financial instrument that may be converted into, exercised or swapped with shares subject to lock-up, regardless of the fact that said transactions must be regulated, via the assignment of Nexi's ordinary shares or of other financial instruments, cash or otherwise;
- (ii) enter into any swap agreement or any other agreement or become a party of any transaction that may entail (including upon conditions) the transfer, entire or partial, direct or indirect, of the economic effects deriving from the ownership of any share subject to lock-up, regardless of the fact that said transactions must be regulated via the assignment of Nexi's ordinary shares or of other financial instruments, cash or otherwise (each one of the aforesaid transactions, including the ones mentioned under paragraph (i) above, a "Sale"); and
- (iii) publicly disclose the intention of performing any of the aforesaid transactions.

The aforesaid obligations shall not apply: (a) to Empco, with reference to one or more Sales involving up to one million shares assigned to them upon the effectiveness of the Nets Merger and (b) to Danish Manco, with reference to one or more Sales involving up to two million shares assigned to them upon the effectiveness of the Nets Merger.

Management Sell-Down agreement

Pursuant to the Management Sell-Down Agreement, the Nets Vehicles have undertaken, as of the date said agreement was signed and until the effective date of the Nets Merger, to refrain from and give instruction to its employees and managers holding a stake in the Nets Vehicles (the "Managers") to refrain from purchasing, directly or indirectly, Nexi shares unless it is compliant with the provisions set forth under the framework agreement governing the Nets Merger or that fall within the scope of possible incentive plans for employees, which may be concurred by the Nets Vehicles and/or Managers and Nexi following the subscription of the Management Sell-Down Agreement.

Should, following the closing of the Nets Merger and without prejudice to the terms of the Lock-Up Agreements, one or more Nets Vehicles or Investors propose to sell, transfer or otherwise distribute Nexi shares, such transfer must be executed based on the specific provisions set forth under the Management Sell-Down Agreement and, in the case in point, promptly informing, respectively, depending on the case, the Investors or Nets Vehicles. Following said transfer, further Lock-Up Agreements shall be subscribed, depending on the case, by the Nets Vehicles or the Investors, it being understood that said agreements must not last more than ninety calendar days.

Should a Nets Vehicle sell or transfer, by any means, any stake directly held in Nexi shares to a Manager, including through the distribution by a Nets Vehicles, which entails that a Manager holds aggregate Nexi shares whose value exceeds Euro 5,000,000, said Nets Vehicle shall make sure that the Manager in point shall undertake, before the Investors, to comply – via a consent agreement or otherwise – with the provisions set forth under the Management Sell-Down Agreement (the sale or transfer being subject to said commitment taken by the relevant Manager).

D. SIA FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT AND SIA SHAREHOLDERS' AGREEMENT

On February 11, 2021 Nexi, SIA SpA (“SIA”), CDP Equity SpA (“CDPE”), FSIA Investimenti Srl (“FSIA”) and Mercury signed a binding framework agreement (the “Framework Agreement”) which aims to govern the terms and conditions of the merger by incorporation of SIA into Nexi (the “SIA Merger”).

More specifically, the SIA Framework Agreement envisages, inter alia, a series of covenants that are relevant including for the purposes set forth under article 122 of the TUF.

Furthermore, within the scope of of the SIA Merger, the parties undertook to sign a Shareholders' Agreement (the “SIA Shareholders' Agreement” and, together with the SIA Framework Agreement, the “SIA Shareholders Covenants”) substantially consistent with one of the two versions, depending on the case, attached to the SIA Framework Agreement (release “A” or release “B”) that will come into force as of the effective date of the SIA Merger, itself too comprising specific relevant covenants pursuant to article 122 of the TUF with reference, inter alia, to the corporate governance of the entity resulting from the SIA Merger (the “Resulting Entity”) and to the transferability of shares that the shareholding parties shall come to hold upon closing of the SIA Merger.

In particular, (i) release “A” of the Shareholders' Agreement, to be signed by CDPE, FSIA, Mercury and the Nets Investors should the Nets Merger be completed as at the effective date of the SIA Merger, as expected (“Covenant A”), and (ii) release “B”, to be signed exclusively by CDPE, FSIA and Mercury should the Nets Merger not be completed as at the effective date of the SIA Merger (“Covenant B”). Should the Nets Merger come into force following the effective date of the SIA Merger, CDPE, FSIA and Mercury shall terminate Covenant B initially signed and shall sign Covenant A with the Nets Investors too, in the form previously agreed upon and attached to the SIA Framework Agreement.

Below are the relevant provisions of the SIA Shareholders Covenants. Please refer to the essential information pursuant to articles 122 of the TUF and 130 of the Issuers’ Regulation, available on Nexi’s website at www.nexi.it for further information on the SIA Shareholders Covenants.

Taking into account the effects of the Nets Merger on the SIA Merger, the SIA Framework Agreement sets forth some specific provisions concerning the closing of the SIA Merger based on the timing of the closing of the Nets Merger, aimed at neutralising or attenuating the dilutive effect for CDPE and FSIA deriving from the transaction with Nets, which include, among other things and very briefly, CDPE’s right, at its exclusive and unquestionable discretion, to request a resolution in favour of a SIA capital increase that allows, in the event of a full subscription of said capital, (a) SIA shareholders to hold, at the closing of the SIA Merger, an overall stake not exceeding 30.08% of the Resulting Entity’s share capital; and (b) CDPE and FSIA to hold, jointly, at the closing of the SIA Merger, an overall stake not exceeding 25.0005% of the Resulting Entity's share capital (the "SIA Capital Increase"). Lastly, please note that the SIA Framework Agreement envisages that, at any time following the date of subscription of the SIA Framework Agreement, CDPE may decide to transfer, for any reason and through any modality, all (not part of) the SIA shares it holds to CDP and, consequently, designate CDP as the entity that shall take on all the rights and obligations of CDPE, pursuant to the SIA Framework Agreement, and that shall execute said SIA Framework Agreement (including possible rights and obligations arisen prior to the designation date and to be entirely or partially fulfilled after such date).

Pursuant to the SIA Framework Agreement, throughout the Interim Period, (i) CDPE and FSIA undertook not to transfer any SIA share they held at any time and (ii) Mercury undertook not to transfer the Nexi shares it held at any time (the "Interim Lock-Up").

CDPE and FSIA may still transfer all or part of the SIA shares they hold to another company that, either directly or indirectly, is controlled by, controlling, or subject to joint control with, the transferor, including – as regards CDPE – the CDPE Vehicle. Said transfers shall be effective solely if specific conditions provided for by the SIA Framework Agreement occur. Likewise, Mercury may transfer all or part of its Nexi shares only if specific conditions provided for by the SIA Framework Agreement occur.

No separate agreement, no mandatory public takeover bid

Each party of Covenant A (hereinafter, individually referred to as the "Party" and, collectively, as the "Parties") shall confirm and undertake to make sure that the actors associated with it are not a party of - and shall not enter into – any Shareholders' Agreement concerning Nexi, other than: (i) the SIA Shareholders' Agreement; (ii) the rights and obligations of shareholders proceeding from or related to the SIA Framework Agreement; (iii) the Shareholders' Agreement between Mercury shareholders entered into on March 11, 2019, as subsequently amended or supplemented, concerning Mercury and Nexi; (iv) the Nets Shareholders'

For the entire term of the SIA Shareholders' Agreement, each Party undertakes, before the others: (a) not to, (b) to make sure that its subsidiaries do not and (c) take all reasonable actions to make sure that any other party acting jointly with it or with one of its subsidiaries does not cause the launching of a mandatory public takeover bid by one of the Parties, individually or collectively (including following the purchase of any share or the execution of any Shareholders' Agreement). To this regard, each Party shall undertake to (i) promptly inform the other Parties as to any purchase or transfer of shares of the Resulting Entity or as to the execution of any Shareholders' Agreement that may be relevant in view of the above, and (ii) hold the other Parties harmless from any liability that the latter may incur should said Party have caused the compulsory launch of a mandatory public takeover bid on the shares of the Resulting Entity for one or all the other Parties.

Key governance standards

The Parties shall set some key governance standards in accordance, among other things, with the best practices and governance standards applicable to the national and foreign, similar-sized listed companies. Furthermore, the Parties agree that Nexi Group shall be administrated by a highly specialised management team that is appreciated by institutional investors, leveraging the professional expertise at several organisational levels of the inhouse resources of both Nexi and SIA, in place as at the date of the SIA Shareholders' Agreement. In particular, the management team shall be identified by the Resulting Entity's Chief Executive Officer: (a) based on the best practices for similar sized listed companies and consistent with the relevant standards and guidelines, and (b) taking due account of the expertise and professionalism – in both SIA and Nexi – required for the future growth of the Resulting Entity.

The Parties (other than H&F) agree that Nexi's Board of Directors shall adopt, as quickly as possible following the date of the SIA Shareholders' Agreement: (a) an initial Business Plan that reflects and amplifies the guidelines agreed upon by Nexi, SIA, Mercury, CDPE and FSIA pursuant to the SIA Framework Agreement; and (b) an adequate management retention system (in cash and/or shares) that envisages lock-up obligations and, if necessary, vesting obligations, consistent with the best practices adopted by similar-sized listed companies. For the entire term of the SIA Shareholders' Agreement, said Parties shall monitor compliance with the concurred guidelines and shall exercise their voting and other rights as shareholders of the Resulting Entity so as to fully enforce the guidelines while pursuing the primary and common goal of creating value for and in the best interest of all shareholders.

Resolutions of Nexi's Shareholders' meeting and Board of Directors

Each Party shall exercise its voting rights as shareholder of the Resulting Entity in a coordinated way and collectively with the other Parties in terms of resolutions concerning: (i) with the exception of H&F, some confidential matters (as detailed under the SIA Framework Agreement), so that, should AB Investors, Mercury, CDPE and FSIA fail to reach a common stance with reference to the relevant resolution, all the Parties (save for H&F, which may vote at its discretion) shall vote together to turn down the resolution, and (ii) the appointment of Nexi's Board of Directors and Nexi's Board of Statutory Auditors, while always complying with the provisions of the SIA Shareholders' Agreement. Furthermore, each Party shall, to the extent permitted by the applicable laws and in accordance with their fiduciary duties, make sure that each director designated by said Party, from time to time, for the Resulting Entity (but, for the sake of clarity, excluding any independent director), exercise their voting rights and powers in a coordinated way and collectively with the directors designated by the other Parties in terms of resolutions concerning: (i) with the exception of H&F, Confidential Matters (as detailed under the SIA Framework Agreement) applicable in such a way that, should the non-independent directors designated by AB Investors, Mercury, CDPE and FSIA fail to reach a common stance as to the relevant resolution, all directors designated by the Parties (other than the directors designated by H&F, who may vote at their discretion) shall vote together to turn down the resolution and (ii) the appointment/replacement of the Chief Executive Officer, the replacement of the Board of Directors' members pursuant to article 2386, paragraph 1, of the Italian Civil Code and any other applicable issue, so as to always comply with the provisions set forth under the SIA Shareholders' Agreement.

Composition of Nexi's Board of Directors and Board of Statutory Auditors

Board of Directors

Starting from the Effective Date and until the first of the following dates – (i) the date of the Shareholders' meeting summoned to approve the yearly financial statements as at December 31, 2020, and (ii) the date of the Shareholders' meeting summoned to appoint a new Nexi Board of Directors to succeed the one in office at the Effective Date (hereinafter, the “First Term”) – the breakdown of the Board of Directors shall be as follows:

- (i) six directors (one non-independent director to be appointed as deputy chairperson, four independent directors and one director that must meet the gender requirements provided for by the applicable laws) designated jointly by CDPE and FSIA;
- (ii) Paolo Bertoluzzo, as Nexi Chief Executive Officer (“Initial CEO”);
- (iii) four directors (one to be appointed as chairperson, three including non-independent directors and one independent director and two directors that must meet the gender diversity requirements provided for by the applicable laws) designated by Mercury;
- (iv) one director – including non-independent – designated by AB Europe;
- (v) one director – including non-independent – designated by Eagle SCA; and
- (vi) two directors – including non-independent – designated by H&F.

Such breakdown of the Board of Directors may be modified should, during the First Term, the percentage of the aggregate stake in the Resulting Entity's share capital directly or indirectly held (including through the CDPE Vehicle) by CDPE and FSIA drop below a specific Governance Threshold (as defined under the SIA Shareholders' Agreement). In the latter case, CDPE and FSIA shall make sure that one independent director they have designated promptly resigns from office and the Parties shall make sure that said resigning director be replaced by one independent director designated jointly by Mercury and by AB Investors. Departing from the above, each of the rights set forth under points (iii), (iv) and (v) above shall be deemed assigned to Mercury and to AB Investors.

Starting from the expiry of the First Term (excluded) and until the date of the Shareholders' meeting that must approve the yearly financial statements of the Resulting Entity as at December 31, 2024 (hereinafter, the “Second Term”), should CDPE and FSIA hold, directly or indirectly (including through the CDPE Vehicle) an aggregate percentage in the Resulting Entity's share capital that is equal to or greater than the Governance Threshold, Nexi's Board of Directors shall be composed as follows:

- (i) six directors (five independent directors and one of whom to be appointed as chairperson, and two of whom must meet the gender requirements provided for by the applicable laws) designated jointly by CDPE and FSIA;
- (ii) two directors – including non-independent – designated jointly by Mercury and AB Investors;
- (iii) without prejudice to as otherwise provided for under the SIA Shareholders' Agreement, the Initial CEO;
- (iv) two directors – including non-independent – designated by H&F;
- (v) two directors designated by the minorities.

Otherwise, starting from the expiry of the First Term (excluded) and until the Second Term, should CDPE and FSIA directly or indirectly hold (including through the CDPE Vehicle) an aggregate percentage of the Resulting Entity's share capital that is below the Governance Threshold, Nexi's Board of Directors shall break down as follows:

- (i) five directors (four independent directors - one of whom to be appointed as chairperson – and two of whom must meet the gender requirements provided for by the applicable laws) designated jointly by CDPE and FSIA;
- (ii) three directors (one of whom independent and, in this case, one of whom that meets the gender requirements provided for by the applicable laws) designated jointly by Mercury and AB Investors;
- (iii) without prejudice to as otherwise provided for under the SIA Shareholders' Agreement, the Initial CEO;
- (iv) two directors – including non-independent – designated by H&F; and
- (v) two directors designated by the minorities.

Such breakdown of the Board of Directors may be modified should there be, during the Second Term, an increase or decrease of the percentage of the aggregate stake directly or indirectly held in the Resulting Entity's share capital (including through the CDPE Vehicle) by CDPE and FSIA that leads to exceed or drop below the Governance Threshold. In the latter case, Mercury and AB Investors, or CDPE and FSIA (depending on the case) shall make sure that one independent director they have designated promptly resigns from office and that all Parties shall make sure that the resigning director be replaced by one independent director designated jointly by CDPE and FSIA, or Mercury and AB Investors (depending on the case).

Each director designated pursuant to the above, save for the individual that shall be appointed as Nexi CEO (the “Chief Executive Officer”), may be revoked (with or without just cause) from time to time, at any time, by the Shareholders' meeting, upon request of the Party or Parties that designated them. The requesting Party or Parties shall hold Nexi and/or the other Party or Parties harmless from any claim or action the revoked director may respectively submit or take with reference to said revocation from office. Should a designated director, save for anyone who is CEO of the Company, resign or terminate their office, regardless of the reason, during the First or Second Term (depending on the case), the Party or Parties that have designated them shall have the right to designate the new director, in order to retain the aforesaid membership of the Board of Directors.

The Parties agree that there shall be no prejudice to the rights of H&F provided for under the Nets Shareholders' Agreement.

During the First Term, the Initial CEO (a) shall be the Chief Executive Officer and general manager of Nexi and Nexi Group, and (b) shall hold, in the other subsidiaries of the Group, the same powers/proxies and the same roles/titles held as at the date of the SIA Shareholders' Agreement.

Without prejudice to the above, should the Initial CEO cease to be Chief Executive Officer, regardless of the reason, no later than 15 (fifteen) days of the effective date of their termination of office (unless CDPE, FSIA, AB Investors and Mercury have, in the meantime, agreed in writing on the individual who shall replace the Initial CEO as Nexi Chief Executive Officer and General Manager – hereinafter, the “New Chief Executive Officer”), CDPE, FSIA, AB Investors and Mercury (who shall pre-emptively consult with H&F), supported by a specialised head-hunter – identified jointly – shall proceed to select the New Chief Executive Officer, in accordance with the modalities and criteria set forth under the SIA Shareholders' Agreement.

Board of Statutory Auditors

During the First Term, the Board of Statutory Auditors shall break down as follows:

- (i) one statutory auditor and one alternate auditor designated jointly by CDPE and FSIA; and
- (ii) the remaining two statutory auditors – one acting as chairperson of the Board of Statutory Auditors and one alternate auditor – jointly designated by Mercury and AB Investors.

Each Party shall make sure that, for the entire duration of the Second Term, the Board of Statutory Auditors be composed as follows (in accordance with the applicable laws and the New Articles of Association):

- (i) one statutory auditor and one alternate auditor designated jointly by CDPE and FSIA;
- (ii) one statutory auditor designated jointly by AB Investors and Mercury; and
- (iii) one statutory auditor that shall be chairperson of the Board of Statutory Auditors and one alternate auditor designated by the minorities.

Should a statutory auditor and/or alternate auditor designated pursuant to the above resign or cease to be in office, regardless of the reason, before their term expires, the Party/ies that have designated said auditor shall designate (in accordance with the applicable laws and with the New Articles of Association) the new auditor so as to retain the aforesaid membership of the Board of Statutory Auditors.

Lock-ups, allowed transfers and call options

The Parties (other than AB Investors and H&F) agree that for a period of:

- (i) 6 months starting from the effective date of the SIA Merger (hereinafter, “First Lock-Up Period”), no Party may transfer the Resulting Entity’s shares and may not perform any hedging of the Resulting Entity’s shares; and
- (ii) 12 months starting from the First Lock-Up Period (hereinafter, “Second Lock-Up Period”), no Party may transfer the Resulting Entity’s shares, unless specific exceptions are provided for under the SIA Shareholders' Agreement.

Departing from the above, at any time, including during the First Lock-Up Period and the Second Lock-Up Period:

Each shareholder shall vote for the slate, hence for all the candidates listed in it, with no variations or exclusions.

The elected candidates shall be the ones that won the highest number of votes, based on the following criteria:

- a) all the Directors, except for two, shall be selected, following the sequential number of appearance on the slate, from the slate that obtained the highest number of votes;
- b) the remaining Directors shall be selected from the other slates; for this purpose, the votes won by the very slates shall be subsequently divided by one, two, three, four, etc. following the candidates' sequential order of appearance in the relevant slates. The resulting quotients shall be sorted in one single list, in decreasing order. At least one director shall be selected from the minority slate that obtained the highest number of votes which may not be associated in any way, even indirectly, with shareholders who have submitted or voted for the list which came in first by number of votes.

The two candidates with the highest quotients shall be elected.

Should a number of candidates obtain the same quotient, the candidate of the slate that still has elected no Director or that has elected less Directors, shall be appointed. Should no such slate have yet elected a Director, or if all slates have elected the same number of Directors, the candidate of these slates that won more votes shall be elected. In the event of a tie (in terms of number of votes and quotient), a new voting session shall take place and the Shareholders' meeting shall resolve based on the majorities provided for by the law.

Should, following the implementation of the above, the Shareholders' meeting fail to appoint the minimum required number of independent Directors and/or Directors of the less represented gender, in accordance with the rules and regulations applicable from time to time, the following procedure shall be adopted:

- a) the candidates elected in the several slates shall be arranged in one single list, in decreasing order, formed based on the quotients system mentioned under item b) above;
- b) should the minimum required number of independent Directors not be elected, the candidate not meeting the independent requirements and with the lowest quotient in the list mentioned under item a) shall be replaced by the first candidate meeting the independence requirements that has not been elected and belongs to the same slate of the replaced candidate. If said slate features no other eligible candidate, the Shareholders' meeting shall resolve on the replacement in accordance with the majorities provided for by the law;
- c) should the minimum required number of Directors of the less represented gender not be elected, the candidate of the most represented gender with the lowest quotient in the list mentioned under item a) shall be replaced, without prejudice to the minimum number of independent Directors, by the first candidate of the less represented gender resulting non-elected and appearing in the same slate of the replaced candidate. If said slate features no other eligible candidate, the Shareholders' meeting shall resolve on the replacement in accordance with the majorities provided for by the law.

The slates that fail to reach a percentage of votes equivalent to at least half of the one required for the submission of the slates themselves shall not be considered.

Should one single slate be submitted, the Shareholders' meeting shall cast its vote on said slate and should it obtain the relative majority, the candidates appearing in a sequential order shall be elected Directors, until the number set by the Shareholders' meeting is reached, without prejudice to the obligation of appointing a number of independent Directors, pursuant to article 147b of the TUF, equivalent to the minimum number set forth under the Articles of Association and under the law, nor to the compliance with gender equality, in accordance with the rules and regulations applicable from time to time. Failure to elect a minimum number of Directors of the less represented gender and of independent Directors, as provided for by the Articles of Association and by the rules and regulations applicable from time to time shall lead the Shareholders' meeting to replace the Directors marked by the lowest sequential number and not meeting the requirements in point, selecting the subsequent candidates meeting said requirements from the slate and appointing them. Should, even by resorting to said replacement criterion, suitable substitutes not be found, the Shareholders' meeting shall resolve on the point through a relative majority. In this event, the replacements shall be made starting from the candidates marked by the lowest sequential number.

Should the number of candidates included in the submitted slates, both majority and minority ones, be lower than the one of the Directors to be appointed, the remaining Directors shall be elected by the Shareholders' meeting through the majorities provided for by the law, without prejudice to the Shareholders' meeting's obligation of appointing a minimum number of Directors belonging to the less represented gender and independent Directors, as provided for by the Articles of Association and by the rules and regulations applicable from time to time. Through said modalities and majorities, the Shareholders' meeting shall proceed to appoint all the Directors, even if no slate is submitted.

Regarding the termination of office, pursuant to article 15 of the Articles of Association, failure to meet the requirements set forth by the law or the regulations for holding the office of Director shall lead to forfeiture of office, duly noting that failure to meet the independence requirement – without prejudice to the obligation of immediately disclosing said condition – shall not lead to forfeiture of office if said requirement is still met by a minimum number of Directors that, in accordance with the Articles of Association and with the rules and regulations applicable from time to time, must meet said requirement. Without prejudice to the above, failure to meet the independence requirement shall, however, lead to termination of the offices for which said requirement is provided for by the rules and regulations applicable from time to time.

Furthermore, in the event of termination of office, regardless of the reason, of one or more Directors, they shall be freely replaced pursuant to the provisions of article 2386 of the Italian Civil Code, with the new ones being selected, whenever possible, from the pool of candidates who were originally included in the same slate of the terminated member and have confirmed their candidature, without prejudice to the obligation of retaining a minimum number of independent Directors pursuant to article 147-b of the TUF, as provided for by the Articles of Association and by the law, nor to the obligation of ensuring gender balance, based on the regulations.

Succession planning

In January 2020, the Board of Directors – upon proposal of the Remuneration and Appointment Committee – adopted a succession planning for the leading positions of Nexi Group, in order to achieve a twofold objective: (i) to ensure management continuity in the medium-long run; (ii) to promote business sustainability for relevant shareholders and stakeholders, mitigating risk factors.

The perimeter and scope of the succession planning involves the Chief Executive Officer and General Manager and the foremost reporting offices, including the supervisory ones.

In defining the succession planning, Nexi adopted an approach that is aligned to the best practices of the Italian and international markets and consistent with CONSOB and Corporate Governance Code provisions, an integrated method featuring instruments that manage, develop and enhance the staff of Nexi Group.

The adopted process for the foremost reporting offices, is based on a rigorous and objective comparison of internal candidates, also broadly taking into account diversity and inclusion.

Regarding succession planning in the ongoing year, Nexi Group has confirmed the perimeter (following the corporate transactions with Nets and SIA currently being completed), the methods and the process adopted last year. For the years 2022-2023, the succession planning shall be revised based on the new organisation defined following the Nexi-SIA and Nexi-Nets mergers.

Compared with the group's current perimeter and organisation, as regards the Chief Executive Officer and General Manager, for the Chief Financial Officer and for the Chief Information Officer, the update of the pipeline for the external candidates pooled last year has been postponed to the completion of the future corporate structure, while the list of inhouse candidates for the remaining leading positions has been updated. For each inhouse successor candidate, the due development actions have been identified, based on a structured process, shared with the Executive Committee.

With reference to the succession of the Chief Executive Officer and General Manager in the event of a sudden and unexpected termination of the employment relationship, the enforcement of a contingency plan is envisaged, pursuant to which the key role for managing the transition is entrusted to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, together with a Committee specifically set up for the purpose in this discontinuity phase, without prejudice to the powers of the Board itself. In such an event, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall take on, provisionally and for a limited period, the executive powers of attorney previously assigned to the Chief Executive Officer/General Manager until the successor takes office.

Diversity criteria and policies

As for the measures taken in terms of the diversity policies of administration and control bodies, with reference to the provisions set forth under article 123a, paragraph 2, letter da of the TUF and to the new provisions of the Nexi Corporate Governance Code, please refer to the Board of Directors' self-assessment process, described under paragraph 4.3 below and in the self-assessment process of the Board of Statutory Auditors, detailed under paragraph 13.

Please note that at least one third of the members of the Board of Directors and of the Board of Statutory Auditors in office as at the date of this Report belongs to the less represented gender.

The Group has made the diversification of gender, experience and expertise a trademark of its staff in addressing the increasing challenges posed by the market it operates in and undertakes to promote diversity including in the administration, management and control bodies of the Group, in accordance with the requirements set by law for listed companies. In said context, the Board, on July 30, 2020, approved the Group's Sustainability Policy, which draws inspiration from major national and international standards and was drafted in accordance with the Code of Conduct, the Organisational Model 231 and with all the Group's policies and procedures currently in force, highlighting that the Group's greatest asset is its staff and that promoting of technological development occurs by giving due value to the human capital, among other things. Said diversity is enhanced especially by promoting an inclusive culture and by implementing the principle of equal opportunities for narrowing the gender and remuneration gap within the scope of the remuneration and incentives policies. Consistent with this effort, starting in 2020, a specific target was introduced in the MBO of the Chief Executive Officer and Strategy Managers, namely People Value, which aims to keep management increasingly focussed on long-term growth objectives and on the creation of value for employee stakeholders. For further details, please refer to the Sustainability Policy and Remuneration Report, available on the website www.nexi.it.

The set of instruments adopted in terms of People Strategy, performance management, training, reward and sustainable welfare and the Group's relevant performances in 2020 are also reported under Nexi's consolidated Non Financial Report, available on the website www.nexi.it.

Limit to the number of offices held in other companies

The Board of Directors reckoned there was no need to draft general rules regulating the limit to the administration and control offices held in other companies that may be deemed compatible with an efficient fulfilment of the role of Director at Nexi, claiming that the due assessment can be made from time to time, taking into account the opinion of the Remuneration and Appointment Committee, mainly resorting to the following assessment criteria: (i) the Director's role in the Company (executive, non-executive, independent); (ii) the nature and size of the body where the offices are held and the role of the Director with reference to said bodies (also considering, among other things, the body's corporate purpose, the organisation of the governance, the tasks and powers assigned); and (iii) these bodies possibly being part of Nexi's same group. Moreover, each Director must assess the compatibility of their position as Director or auditor held in other companies listed in regulated markets, in financial, banking, insurance companies or in large companies with the diligent fulfilment of the tasks taken on as a Nexi Director.

Decisions may be taken even following the Board of Directors' self-assessment process, detailed under paragraph 4.3 below.

Induction and training initiatives

In the financial year 2020, a number of initiatives were taken in order to give Directors and auditors an adequate knowledge of the reference sector, of corporate and Group trends and their evolution, and of the reference regulatory and legal framework, including with the assistance of Group managers and consultants; dedicated meetings were also held, which illustrated specific aspects of Nexi's business sector. In particular, the following topics were analysed in depth: Business Plan, Group's growth opportunities abroad, ESG and Sustainability. In addition, induction initiatives also included the analysis of the new elements introduced by Directives PSD2 and GDPR.

In the ongoing financial year, a training and analysis session concerning Legislative Decree 231/2001 on the administrative accountability of legal entities was held, specifically focusing on the updates to the Organisational Model 231 adopted by the Company, namely: i) the amendments set forth under the latest update of the Model; ii) the standards provided for by Legislative Decree 231/2001; iii) the contents of the adopted Model; iv) the specific felony cases envisaged by the lawmakers; v) the Model's effects and consequences on the body; vi) the tasks of the Supervisory Authority; vii) the adopted regulation; viii) whistleblowing. This very training session provided the Board of Directors with an overview of anti-money laundering regulations, with a focus on the Board of Directors' role in terms of strategic decisions concerning money laundering risk management.

4.3 ROLE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors' foremost goal is to create value for shareholders in the medium-long run.

In particular, the Board of Directors plays a key role in terms of corporate organisation, leading the way in pursuing the Company's strategic, business and financial objectives, as well verifying the existence of the due checks for monitoring the Company's trend. As provided for by the Group Regulation on management and coordination, it is up to Nexi's Board of Directors to examine and approve the strategic, business and financial plans of Nexi and of the Group, and to regularly monitor their implementation, define Nexi's corporate governance system and define the organisation of the group Nexi is at the helm of. Furthermore, this Regulation gives Nexi's Board of Directors power to resolve as to the transactions of Nexi and of its subsidiaries when such transactions have a significant strategic, economic, asset-related or financial relevance for Nexi itself. In particular, with reference to the Group's Regulation, significant transactions means the ones executed by Nexi subsidiaries (or companies controlled by said subsidiaries) that: a) lie outside the ordinary activities of the subsidiaries themselves and their subsidiaries (such as, for example, capital increases, issuance of subordinated debts, merges, spinoffs, alliances, joint ventures) and other transactions that, regardless of the economic value, entail a modification of the share capital's organisation; or b) involve an investment and/or divestment, including related to stake-holding, or that concern the purchase/sale of company branches or assets that are not provided for under Nexi's business plan or consolidated budget. Nexi's Board of Director shall check, from time to time, whether the transactions Nexi itself must execute have a significant strategic, economic, asset-related or financial significance for the Company.

Pursuant to article 16 of the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors has full powers in terms of ordinary and extraordinary management of the Company.

The Board of Directors holds jurisdiction – without prejudice to the limits provided for by the law and without sub-delegating powers – for resolutions concerning: a) mergers and spinoffs, in the cases provided for under articles 2505 and 2505a of the Italian Civil Code, and under article 2506b of the Italian Civil Code; b) the institution and suppression of secondary offices; c) the designation of the Directors that may represent the company; d) the possible reduction of capital if one or more partners leave; e) amendments to the Articles of Association, adjusting them to the laws; f) the relocation of the head office on the national territory; g) resolutions concerning the issuance of bonds within the limits provided for by the rules and regulations applicable from time to time.

Pursuant to article 17 of the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors shall be deemed validly convened when the majority of its members holding office are in attendance and shall resolve validly with the favourable vote of the absolute majority of its members in attendance. In the event of a tie, the vote of the chairperson shall prevail.

Pursuant to article 19 of the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors may delegate, within the limits provided for by the rules and regulations applicable from time to time, a part of its powers to an executive committee consisting of some of its members or to one or more of its members, establishing the powers and, following talks with the Board of Statutory Auditors, the relevant remuneration. The Board of Director may also set up its own internal committees holding advisory and proactive functions, deciding on the powers including in order to align the corporate governance system with the codes of conduct the Company may adopt.

The Board of Directors may also appoint Directors-General and special proxies for specific deeds or deed categories, assigning them the relevant powers.

The Board of Directors shall appoint a Financial Reports Manager, once acknowledged the (non-binding) opinion of the Board of Statutory Auditors and may, if needed, revoke said appointment. The Board of Directors, pursuant to article 154a, paragraph 4 of the TUF, shall monitor to make sure that the Financial Reports Manager employs the adequate means and powers to fulfil the tasks ascribed to him/her pursuant to the laws, and shall monitor compliance with administrative and accounting procedures.

Pursuant to article 17 of the Articles of Association, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall convene and chair the Board of Directors, set its agenda and coordinate its sessions.

The Board shall be convened with all the suitable means, notifying each Director and Board of Statutory Auditors member with the due notice (typically at least 5 (five) calendar days prior to the meeting – for urgent meetings, said notice may drop to 12 (twelve) hours prior to the meeting). The Board of Directors' meetings shall still be deemed validly constituted – even if no formal summons notice is given – if all the Directors and the majority of the statutory auditors in office are in attendance, and if all the assignees have been previously notified as to the meeting and have not objected to the items on the agenda. The power to convene the Board of Directors is also held by the Board of Statutory Auditors and by each individual statutory auditor, pursuant to article 151 of the TUF.

The Board of Directors' meetings shall also take place via video or teleconference, provided that all participants may identify one another and that each participant may take the floor in real time when the topics are being addressed and receive, send and view documents. Should all said conditions be met, the meeting shall be deemed held in the place where the Chairperson is.

Pursuant to art. 17 of the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors is validly constituted with the presence of the majority of its members in office and validly deliberates with the favorable vote of the absolute majority of the directors present. In the event of a tie, the vote of the chairman prevails.

The Board of Directors has confirmed the approach based on which a three-five day prior notice is generally considered suitable for sending Board meeting documents, while also acknowledging that said notice may be duly extended or reduced, respectively, if the documents are particularly relevant and/or complex, or if they concern urgent or evolving operations; in 2020 said notice has been complied with and, when it was concretely not possible to meet said notice in the event of extraordinary or evolving operations, the chairperson made sure that the due in-depth analyses were promptly made during meetings other than Board ones.

In 2020, the managers of the corporate offices holding jurisdiction for the topics on the agenda were regularly invited to attend the meetings of the Board of Directors; as requested by the Chief Executive Officer, they provided the due detailed reports on the topics being discussed.

On February 11, 2021, pursuant to recommendation no. 18 of the Nexi Corporate Governance Code 2020, Nexi's Board of Directors resolved on the appointment of Ms Francesca Renzulli, Head of Corporate & Regulatory Affairs, as Secretary of Nexi SpA's Board of Directors, and entrusted with the task, among others, of supporting the Chairperson's activities and providing, with due impartiality, assistance and advice to the Board of Directors as to any relevant aspect for the correct functioning of the corporate governance system. The Board of Directors has acknowledged that Ms Renzulli meets the appropriate requirements in terms of professional experience and independence and that her appointment entails no conflict of interests.

The Board's resolutions must consist of the minutes, signed by the Chairperson and by the Secretary.

In financial year 2020, the Board of Directors met 17 times. Meetings lasted on average about two hours. Regarding the attendance of the Directors at the single meetings, please see table 1.

As for the current financial year, meetings have been scheduled on a quarterly basis. As at the date of this Report, three meetings have been held, including the one concerning the approval of this Report.

Finally, the Board periodically assesses the general trend of management and its foreseeable evolution, particularly taking into account the information received and the reports of the Chief Executive Offer, while also periodically comparing the achieved results and the planned results. As at the date of this Report, the Shareholders' meeting has not authorised, in a general and pre-emptive way, exceptions to the prohibition of competition pursuant to article 2390 of the Italian Civil Code to meet organisational requirements.

Regarding the assessment of the organisational, administrative and accounting assessment, with particular reference to Nexi's system of internal controls and risk management, it should be noted that, since the listing, the Board of Directors has taken targeted measures for implementing an internal control and risk management system that is compliant with the provisions of the Corporate Governance Code and consistent with the company's nature, namely a holding company, parent company of companies operating in the payments sector. The strategic risk were also duly mapped, as well as the mitigation actions taken by management to mitigate the impacts in the event of an adverse scenario.

The implementation and the assessment of the organisational, administrative and accounting structure and of the internal controls and risk management system of the relevant subsidiaries of Nexi Payments and Mercury Payments Services are exclusively up to the corporate bodies of said companies, pursuant to the supervisory regulation as transposed in the Group's Regulation concerning the performance of management and coordination activities.

Board Review 2020

The Board of Directors, working with the Remuneration and Appointment Committee, has completed its assessment – with reference to the year 2020 – as to its size, membership and operations and that of its Committees.

The self-assessment of the Board of Directors started in December 2020, focusing on the financial year closed at December 31, 2020 and was performed in conformity with the most recent international methods, with the assistance of consulting firm Spencer Stuart

The Board Review 2020 was conducted by directly interviewing the Directors on the effectiveness, size, membership and operations of the Board; the interviews were conducted by an external advisor, specialised in corporate governance and board effectiveness.

This year too, knowing that Self-Assessment is a useful tool supporting the corporate governance system, the Directors were willing to contribute to this process, so as to identify the possible areas of improvement, thus optimising board processes.

This second year of the term has been extremely intense and the Board of Directors had to perform extraordinary activities, above all because of the health emergency caused by the pandemic and also with reference to the closing of two important aggregation transactions on the Italian market and on a European level. On the whole, the Directors are pleased with the work the Board carried out throughout the financial year, while being aware that there is room for improvement regarding the contribution they can give in terms of vision, constructively challenging management proposals and fostering both real debates and team spirit.

The aforesaid interviews have revealed a positive picture: 93% of the answers were in agreement with the topics proposed in the interview guide.

Summarising, the Directors expressed full satisfaction and appreciation with reference to the size, membership and operations of the Board of Directors and its Committees; the Board, owing, among other things, to the intense activity carried out during the financial years taken into consideration, is gradually boosting the knowledge and awareness of governance principles and it works substantially in accordance with the Corporate Governance Code and with the Italian and international best practices.

Please note that:

- the Company has efficiently managed the Covid-19 crisis in terms of the company's internal operativity, maintaining its market service levels unchanged and promptly implementing appropriate measures;
- the Board has always been informed, has supported and shared the management's decisions as to the handling of the pandemic;
- the Board has operated with continuity, aiming to strengthen the Group's leading position while consolidating governance rules and structures; during the term, the commitment level has been remarkable and driven by the need to assess and manage extraordinary strategic transactions;
- the working environment is positive and constructive; all contributions are greatly appreciated and there is genuine interest in making Board debates increasingly open;
- the Board features a sound balance between Directors that have a deep knowledge of Nexi and of the top management, and independent Directors, who ensure the diversified expertise that is necessary to ensure an adequate membership of the Board itself and of the Internal Board Committees;
- the leadership of the Chairperson and of the Chief Executive Officer is acknowledged and shared by all Directors; both have worked in order to prevent the emergency situation from impacting the Board's works. The Chairperson, supported by the secretariat, promptly took the due measures to ensure the utmost efficiency of Board meetings via appropriate audio/video conference systems and resorting to the document portal. The Chief Executive Officer continued to guide the top management with determination and clarity of vision, thus minimising the negative impact of the pandemic;

- the Directors greatly appreciated the induction sessions on specific business issues and relevant regulatory elements: such activities were performed by the Company's management, always willing to provide detailed information and clarifications as to the relevant topics.

Regarding the functioning of the Internal Board Committees:

- the Directors point out that the Committees have worked well and that such work is an ideal platform for debates;
- meetings have been very frequent and the consequent engagement very strong, in particular of the Control, Risk and Sustainability Committee and of the Related Parties Committee, mainly due to the importance of the extraordinary transactions;
- the preliminary work and accurate in-depth studies conducted by a specific Committee adequately flow into the Board, to the benefit of that parties outside the specific Committee, also facilitating the decision of the Board.

The following aspects should be further considered in the future:

- the general lockdown months and the enduring social distancing requirements made it difficult to plan moments for sharing, including informal moments in real physical presence, suggested by the Directors themselves in order to boost their engagement and to foster greater teamwork. All Directors confirm they are willing to take part in similar initiatives as soon as it shall be possible;
- the recent extraordinary transactions provide for a governance review and a change in the membership of the body: in this regard, the Board has been considering its size and membership with a view to enhance some of its business skills in the digital sphere (paytech) and to make the Board more international on the whole, given the Group's new geographical perimeter;
- the need to focus on Sustainability, which falls within the scope of the Control and Risk and Sustainability Committee, in order to constantly put the issue on the Board agendas.

4.5 CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Chairperson does not carry an executive role within the Board of Directors, does not carry any special duties with respect to drawing up corporate strategies and performs such duties as are envisaged by governing rules and regulations. In the latter respect, the Chairperson: (i) has powers of representation; (ii) chairs the Shareholders' Meetings; (iii) summons and chairs the Board of Directors, establishing the agenda, manages proceedings and ensures that Directors are provided all appropriate information concerning the agenda items; (iv) ensures that Board resolutions are enacted.

4.6 OTHER EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

At the time of publication no Board of Directors features no additional executive directors.

4.7 INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

The Parent Company's Board of Directors comprises five independent directors each possessing the independence requirements as set forth under article 147-ter of the TUF and under the recommendations of the Corporate Governance Code. The Parent Company's independent directors are:

- (a) Michaela Castelli;
- (b) Elisa Corghi;
- (c) Antonio Patuelli;
- (d) Marinella Soldi;
- (e) Luisa Torchia.

Said parties satisfy independence criteria as detailed under article 3 of the Corporate Governance Code and as pursuant to paragraph 4 of article 147-ter of the TUF which, in turn, references article 148 of the TUF.

Chairperson Michaela Castelli ranks as an independent pursuant to recommendation no. 7 of the 2020 Corporate Governance Code.

Pursuant to article 3 of the Corporate Governance Code, the Parent Company deems the number of independent directors to be suitable in respect of both the size of the Board of Directors and the activities carried out by the Group; said number is also deemed suitable in respect of the establishment of governance committees reporting to the Board, as recommended by the Corporate Governance Code.

On March 11, 2021 the Board of Directors carried out a review so as to ascertain independent directors' continued fulfilment of independence requirements (as detailed under and pursuant to articles 147-quinquies and 148 of the TUF and article 3 of the Corporate Governance Code), and the same such review with respect to statutory auditors (as detailed and pursuant to articles 148 of the TUF and article 8 of the Corporate Governance Code), and in so doing applying all criteria set forth by the Corporate Governance Code).

In the course of said meeting the Board of Statutory Auditors ascertained that the Board of Directors, in performing said review, appropriately applied the criteria set forth by the Corporate Governance Code, to that end performing its assessments transparently, thus allowing the Board to gain knowledge of all information potentially relevant to such assessments.

In December 2020 the independent directors met amongst themselves, without the other directors, to discuss: i) procedures for the Board of Directors' self-assessment in 2020, ii) conflicts of interest within the Board of Directors, iii) induction courses attended by Directors during the course of the year, iv) the role of the Lead Independent Director. With reference to the latter item, the independent directors agreed that the appointment of a Lead Independent Director would prove redundant within the context of Nexi, given that the Board's Chairperson already fulfils the duties of maintaining proper governance, by ensuring appropriate information exchange between the Board of Directors and its independent directors. The meeting also ascertained the Board's full knowledge and awareness on matters of major strategic and operational relevance..

4.8 LEAD INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR

As detailed in the previous paragraph, in keeping with the opinion of the independent directors, the Board of Directors has not appointed a Lead Independent Director.

5. CORPORATE INFORMATION MANAGEMENT

On March 8, 2019 the Nexi Board of Directors resolved to approve:

On February 25, 2019 the Nexi Board of Directors, in compliance with the corporate governance recommendations set forth by the Corporate Governance Code, further resolved to establish:

- a control, risks and sustainability committee pursuant to article 7 del Corporate Governance Code (i.e. the Control, Risks and Sustainability Committee);
- a related-party transactions committee pursuant to article 4 of the Corporate Governance Code and as further provided for under the Related-Party Regulation (i.e. the RPT Committee);
- a remuneration and appointments committee pursuant to articles 5 & 6 of the Corporate Governance Code (i.e. the Remuneration and Appointments Committee).

On March 8, 2019 the Board of Directors approved regulations governing said committees.

In accordance with these regulations, minutes shall be drafted for all and any committee meetings and said minutes shall be drafted by a Secretary who may be appointed from time to time or may be subject to a permanent designation. At the earliest opportunity, Committee Chairpersons shall i) inform the Board of Directors as to the issues discussed, ii) report to the Board as to any assessments and/or opinions pertaining to the issues discussed and/or resolved upon.

In performing their duties and for the purposes of fulfilling their mandates, said committees shall be granted access to all relevant information and cooperation by all relevant corporate functions, and shall be entitled to enlist external advisors at Nexi's expense, said expenses being subject to the budget caps approved by the Board of Directors for each committee.

In performing its duties and for the purposes of fulfilling their mandates, the Remuneration and Appointments Committee shall be granted access to all relevant information and cooperation by all relevant corporate functions, and shall be entitled to enlist external advisors subject to such limitations as set forth by the Board of Directors.

The Remuneration and Appointments Committee ensures disclosure and transparency with regards to both the remuneration of the Chief Executive Officer and of senior management, and the method by which remuneration is determined.

Pursuant to article 18 of the Articles of Association and in compliance with article 2389(3) of the Italian Civil Code, it is understood that the Remuneration and Appointments Committee's duties are purely advisory – power to determine the remuneration of any directors with special duties or responsibilities rests, upon consulting with Board of Statutory Auditors, with the Board of Directors.

The Remuneration and Appointments Committee currently comprises non-executive directors Marinella Soldi (the Chairperson), Luca Bassi and Elisa Corghi (replacing Luisa Torchia as of March 6, 2020), all of whom, as a whole, fulfil the independence requirements set forth under the TUF and the Corporate Governance Code and meet, in accordance with provisions under article 6 of the Corporate Governance Code, the relevant eligibility requirements, namely with respect to their knowledge and experience in the fields of finance and remuneration policies (especially Committee Chairperson Marinella Soldi),.

10 INTERNAL CONTROL AND RISK MANAGEMENT SYSTEM AND THE ICRM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

In compliance with Principle no. 7 of the Corporate Governance Code and in line with domestic and international best practices, Nexi has adopted an Internal Control and Risk Management (ICRM) system with a view to identifying, measuring, managing and monitoring of major corporate risks.

On February 25, 2019, to further support the Group's ICRM system and its ICRM Committee, Nexi's Board of Directors appointed, with immediate effect, Paolo Bertoluzzo as the Executive Director for ICRM, whose duties are those listed in the Corporate Governance Code.

In respect of the Chief Executive Officer's appointment in that role, the Board believes said appointment to be in keeping with provisions of the Corporate Governance Code, which indeed highlights the benefits of such a choice also in terms of the appointee's expertise.

In compliance with the provisions of article 7 of the Corporate Governance Code, the Executive Director for ICRM shall:

- ensure that major corporate risks are identified in due account of the nature of the business conducted by Nexi and its subsidiaries, and shall regularly report such risks to the Board of Directors;
- implement the Board of Directors' guidelines, overseeing the design, development and management of the ICRM system and ensuring its constant evaluation in terms of adequacy and effectiveness;
- ensure that said system is updated to reflect changes in the operating, legal and regulatory environments;

Such reports must be presented at least once a year or, where advisable due to the relevance of findings, at the first available Board meeting.

As well as acting in a support capacity with respect to Nexi's ICRM system, the Internal Audit Officer's duties are, among others, those set forth under article 7 of the Corporate Governance Code.

The Internal Audit Officer is not responsible for any of the Group's corporate operating segments and reports directly to the Board of Directors.

The Internal Audit Function is granted by the Board of Directors unlimited access to the premises of all other corporate functions, to recordings, to the minutes of all and any executive and consulting committees, to all other Nexi premises and personnel.

In 2020 the duties of the Internal Audit Officer were carried out in accordance with the prescribed internal rules and, wherever major issues were detected, the Officer reported without delay to the relevant corporate bodies. The Officer also compiled and submitted individual reports for each corporate business area, each designed to highlight any issues detected, their scope and extent and any instances warranting the attention of the relevant management figures. Said actions were carried out with a view to enhancing oversight as to the timely implementation of mitigation and management actions in response to risks identified during the course of audits. The methodological approaches subject to which the Internal Audit Function discharges its duties underwent continuing development. The implementation of new audit software was completed and the latter was leveraged for the purposes of carrying out audits and compiling audit reports.

In accordance with the provisions of the Corporate Governance Code, the remuneration and incentives of the Internal Audit Officer are consistent with assigned duties.

None of the duties or functions served by the Internal Audit Function have been outsourced to any third parties outside the Group.

10.1 ORGANISATIONAL MODEL

Nexi has adopted a so-called Model 231 Organisational, Management and Control Model (i.e. one consistent with the provisions of Legislative Decree 231/2001).

On July 30, 2020 Nexi's Board of Directors approved updates to its Organisational, Management and Control Model in accordance with Legislative Decree 231/2001.

The updates reflect both Nexi SpA's new organisational structure and the amending and supplementing of said legislative decree, to the extent that the latter now ranks trading in influence and tax offences as predicate offences.

The Model is divided into seven parts, one general and six special.

The General Part – which defines Nexi's organisational structure, as well as the criteria, method and principles on which the Model is based – has been updated and expanded, especially in respect of its references to Public Administrations and of criteria for definitions thereof.

The Special Parts are divided as follows:

- Special Part I – Risk Mapping. The document is designed to identify the types of offence and potential avenues by which such offences may be committed at or by Nexi in performing its activities.
- Special Part II – Protocols.
- Documents summarising, for each of the relevant Nexi structures, a range of activities, controls and reporting mechanisms established for the purposes of ensuring that the organisational system complies with rules pursuant to Legislative Decree 231/2001.
- Special Part III – Code of Ethics. The document was solely amended in respect of an additional reference to whistleblower provisions.
- Part IV –
- Special Part IV – Disclosures & Reporting. The document summarises disclosure and reporting channels towards/from the Supervisory.
- Special Part V –
- Model 231 violations reporting form for submittal to the Supervisory Board

- Special Part VI –
- List of Legislative Decree 231 offences applicable to Nexi.

As allowed for by applicable law, the duties of the Supervisory Board are carried out by Board of Statutory Auditors. As such, the Supervisory Board fulfils the relevant requirements of autonomy, independence, professionalism and continuity.

Titled Rules for Financial Reports Management, the document – the scope of which is also to ensure compliance with any duties set forth by the Articles of Association and, to that end, duly encompassing the areas in which the Financial Reports Manager is called upon to exercise his or her powers or to provide coordination – details rules and operating procedures in respect of:

11. DIRECTORS' INTERESTS AND RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Nexi has adopted procedures providing for related-party transactions (hereinafter, the Procedures) pursuant to article 2391a of the Italian Civil Code and pursuant to CONSOB's RTP Regulation, including further instructions and clarification thereto issued under CONSOB Communication DEM/10078683 of September 24, 2010.

The Procedures set out the rules governing the approval and performance of Related-Party Transactions by Nexi, whether directly or through its subsidiaries, so as to ensure said transactions' transparency and fairness.

The Procedures require that the Nexi Board of Directors provide for the establishment of a Related Parties Committee, comprised of three non-executive Independent Directors, all of whom appointed by it.

The members of the Related Parties Committee shall hold office until such time as they resign, or their director's appointment expires, or they cease to qualify as independent directors.

The Related Parties Committee is governed by a specific body of rules approved by the Board of Directors.

The Committee is comprised of non-executive Independent Directors Elisa Corghi (Chairperson as of March 6, 2020, replacing Luisa Torchia), Antonio Patuelli and Marinella Soldi.

In 2020 the Related Parties Committee met 14 times. The meetings were also attended by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors and by the Board of Statutory Auditors.

The above-mentioned Procedures were approved by the Nexi Board of Directors on March 8, 2019, subject to the favourable opinion, pursuant to article 3(4) of the RPT Regulation, of the Related Parties Committee.

Nexi related parties are:

- a. entities which, whether directly or indirectly, including via subsidiaries, fiduciaries or intermediaries (each, in turn, qualifying as related parties):
  - (i) control Nexi;
  - (ii) are controlled by Nexi;
  - (iii) along with Nexi, are controlled by the same entity;
  - (iv) hold an investment in Nexi such that they are able to exercise significant influence over it;
  - (v) jointly control Nexi;
- b. Nexi associates;
- c. joint ventures to which Nexi is a party;
- d. Nexi directors and statutory auditors, key management personnel at Nexi or at the entity controlling Nexi;
- e. close family members of the parties listed under (a) or (d);
- f. parties either controlled, jointly controlled, or subject to the significant influence of any of the parties listed under (d) or (e), or parties in respect of which the latter directly or indirectly hold a stake equal to or greater than 20% of voting rights; collective and personal complementary pension schemes, Italian or foreign, in favour of the employees and/or management at Nexi or at any entity related to it;

Nexi has established the Related Parties Register, wherein Related Parties are registered. The list of Related Parties is updated half-yearly based on available information.

Transactions material to disclosure, i.e. significant, are any Related-Party Transactions for which the threshold value of one or more of the indices – applicability of which varies by type of transaction – listed in Annex 1 of the Procedures is exceeded.

In respect of identifying transactions material to disclosure, it is the Financial Reports Manager's duty to determine and update threshold values for the indices listed in Annex 1 of the Procedures.

Any transactions material to disclosure that fall outside the scope of the Shareholders' Meeting or do not require approval by the latter, are approved by Nexi's Board of Directors subject to reporting by and the favourable opinion of the Related Parties Committee as to how said transactions meet Nexi's best interests, and as to the fairness and consistency of said transactions' terms and conditions.

Nexi has made use of exemptions under article 10(1) of the RPT Regulation, allowing recently listed companies to apply, in respect of Related-Party Transactions and without prejudice to reporting requirements pursuant to article 5 of the RPT Regulation, the disclosure procedures normally applicable to immaterial transactions to material transactions – said exemptions being applicable between the Procedures' entering into force and approval of the financial statements for the second year subsequent to that of a company's listing.

Transactions not material to disclosure are any Related-Party Transactions other than transactions material to disclosure or minor transactions.

Any transactions not material to disclosure that fall outside the scope of the Shareholders' Meeting or do not require approval by the latter, are approved by Nexi's Board of Directors subject to reporting by and the favourable opinion of the Related Parties Committee as to how said transactions meet Nexi's best interests, and as to the fairness and consistency of said transactions' terms and conditions.

Without prejudice to the mandatory provisions on reporting and transparency under the RPT Regulation and under applicable rules and regulations, in respect of Related-Party Transactions (including any transactions carried out by way of a subsidiary), the Procedures, as well as not applying to transactions as defined under article 13(1) and (4) of the RPT Regulations, shall not apply to:

- a. single transactions not exceeding Euro 100,000 in which the Related Party is a natural person; or single transactions not exceeding Euro 500,000 in which the Related Party is a legal entity;
- b. equity-based compensation plans approved by Shareholders pursuant to article 114a of the TUF and any transactions thereto that are subject to an executive decision;
- c. other than those excluded pursuant to the RPT Regulation, resolutions pertaining to the remuneration of board and committee members with special duties and of key management personnel, provided that: (i) a remuneration policy is in place; (ii) a committee solely comprised of non-executive directors, the majority of whom independent, was involved in the drafting of the remuneration policy; (iii) a report on the remuneration policy was submitted for approval by the Shareholders' Meeting; (iv) remunerations are consistent with the remuneration policy;
- d. transactions with or amongst subsidiaries or entities jointly controlled by Nexi, as well as transactions with Nexi associates, provided that no other Related Party holds a significant interest in respect of such counterparties (i.e. Nexi subsidiaries, jointly controlled entities or associates).

in the latter respect, a Related Party' significant interest shall mean any interest that is the result of stakes held in either the equity or the assets of the counterparties, such that said interest is conducive to the counterparties favouring exclusively, or chiefly, the interests of the Related Party. A Related Party's significant interest may also arise whereby Nexi and either a subsidiary or an associate share one or more members of key management personnel, and said members of management not only have a role in both entities, but are also recipients of equity-based compensation (or variable pay), the amount of which is dependent on the financial performance of the counterparties. A Related-Party's significant interest shall not arise whereby Nexi and either a subsidiary or an associate merely share one or more directors or members of key management personnel

- e. Transactions falling within the scope of normal business operations and financial activities at Nexi or at a Nexi subsidiary, and which are carried out on terms comparable – given like nature, size and risk – to those involving non-related parties, or are carried out at a regulated or fixed tariff or price, or are carried out in respect of entities for which the law dictates the fees;
- f. urgent transactions that fall outside the scope of the Shareholders' Meeting or do not require approval by the latter, provided that a clause to that effect is added to the Articles of Association and that requirements under article 13(6) of the RPT Regulation are met.

The Board of Directors di Nexi shall periodically assess, at least once every three years, whether to review the Procedures, and in so doing shall take due account of, among other things, their effectiveness in practice and any prospective changes in Nexi's ownership and control structure. Modifications to the Procedures shall be approved by the Board of Directors subject either to the favourable opinion of the Related Parties Committee or, failing that, to compliance with respect to the provisions of article 4 of the RPT Regulation.

The Procedure will be amended during the first half of 2021 in order to reflect the changes made to the RPT Regulation with Consob resolution no. 21624 of 10 December 2020.

The Procedures are subject to disclosure and published on Nexi's website at the following address: <https://www.nexi.it/investor-relations/gruppo/governance/regolamenti.html>.

Nexi's Board of Statutory Auditors shall ensure that the Procedures comply with the general principles set forth by the RPT Regulation and that said Procedures are abided by, and, as to each, shall report to the Shareholders'

Meeting in accordance with the provisions of article 2429(2) of the Italian Civil Code and article 153 of the TUF.

12. STATUTORY AUDITOR APPOINTMENTS

Pursuant to articles 21, 22 and 23 of the Articles of Association, Nexi has adopted procedures that ensure transparency in respect of the appointment of its Statutory Auditors. Said procedures also ensure appropriate and timely disclosure as to candidates' personal and professional qualifications.

Members of the Board of Statutory Auditors are elected by Shareholders by way of a slate voting system, as detailed below, ensuring gender diversity pursuant to the rules and regulations applicable from time to time.

The submittal of slates is governed by the rules and regulations in force from time to time, and by New Articles of Association.

Slates may be submitted by the shareholders who, either individually or as part of shareholder syndicate, at time of submittal account for a 2.5% stake in voting rights, or any such stake as is determined by the rules and regulations applicable from time to time.

The slates shall be deposited with the Company by the deadline set forth under the laws and regulations in force from time to time, as indicated in the convening notice to the Company's head office or via remote communication means, as indicated in the convening notice, and made available to the general public in accordance with the terms and modalities established by the laws and regulations in force from time to time

Each shareholder, any shareholders subscribing to a shareholders' agreement as defined under article 122 of the TUF, the controlling entity, its subsidiaries, companies controlled by it and any other parties with direct or indirect mutual ties, pursuant to the laws and regulations in force from time to time may not submit or take part in the submittal, and are barred from doing so through intermediaries or trusts, of more than one slate, nor may they vote for more than one slate. Each candidate may run in one slate only, under penalty of inadmissibility.

Each slate shall contain a number of candidates in progressive order not exceeding the number of members to be appointed.

The slates shall be divided into two sections: the first, listing candidates for statutory auditor; the second, listing candidates for alternate auditor. The first candidate listed in each section must be enrolled the auditors' register and must have a minimum three years' experience in auditing.

Any slate which, the two sections combined, features three or more candidates must also include candidates of both genders, such that the least represented gender accounts for, upon rounding up, at least one third of the candidates running for statutory auditor and, should the slate also feature candidates for alternate auditor, no less than one candidate for alternate auditor. Failure to comply with the provisions set forth under this paragraph shall lead to the slate being rendered null and void.

The slates must be submitted alongside a) information pertaining to the shareholders who have submitted the slate and their share of equity; b) a statement by shareholders other than those individually or jointly holding a controlling or majority stake, certifying the absence, pursuant to laws and regulations applicable from time to time, of any direct or indirect ties with said controlling or majority shareholders; c) candidates' CVs and a statement from each certifying, under their own responsibility, that there are no grounds for inadmissibility or incompatibility, and that they meet the requirements of the offices for which they run; d) a report on the candidates detailing any administrative and control duties held at other companies, and a statement by candidates as to their meeting all requirements – including those pertaining to integrity, professionalism, independence and to the maximum number of appointments held – as provided for by the laws and regulations applicable from time to time and by the Articles of Association, and as to their acceptance of the candidacy and, should they be appointed, of the office; e) the statement with which each candidate accepts their candidacy; f) any further statement, report and/or document required pursuant to the laws and regulations applicable from time to time.

Failure to comply with the obligations set forth under this article shall lead to the slate being rendered null and void.

The members of the Board of Statutory Auditors must meet the requirements of integrity, professionalism and independence and must comply with provisions concerning the maximum number of appointments under the laws and regulations applicable from time to time and the Corporate Governance Code. Matters deemed strictly relevant to the Company's business scope include commercial law, corporate law, financial markets law, tax law, corporate economics, corporate finance, subjects dealing with the same or similar topics and subjects and sectors linked to the Company's business sector.

The Board of Statutory Auditors is appointed as follows: a) two standing auditors and one alternate auditor shall be selected, based on the order in which they are listed, from the slate that gained most votes (the "majority slate"); b) the third and last statutory auditor, who shall be appointed Chairperson of the Board of Statutory Auditors, and the second and last alternate auditor shall be selected, based on the order in which they are listed, from the slate that both gained the second highest number of votes (the "minority slate") and has no ties, direct or indirect, with the shareholders who submitted or voted for the slate that gained the most votes. Should several slates obtain the same number of votes, a ballot is held between said slates, in which all attending and eligible shareholders may vote. Upon such a vote, the slate winning the plurality vote shall have its candidates appointed.

Failure to meet gender diversity requirements, as provided for by the laws and regulations applicable from time to time and as separately applicable to statutory auditors and alternate auditors, shall lead to any such majority slate candidate as belongs to the majority gender, as is elected and as is last in order of presentation within the relevant section of the slate being replaced by any such non-elected candidate as belongs to the minority gender and as belongs to the same section of the same slate as the replaced candidate, said minority gender candidate being selected based on order of presentation within the slate. Should the number of candidates appointed based on the submitted slates be lower than the number of auditors to be appointed, the remaining auditors shall be appointed by the shareholders via a plurality vote and in such a way as to ensure that gender diversity requirements are met, as provided for by the laws and regulations applicable from time to time.

Whereby only one slate is submitted, the Board of Statutory Auditors shall be entirely selected from said slate, in accordance with the laws and regulations applicable from time to time. If, however, no slates are submitted, as provided for by the law, Shareholders shall decide the matter via a plurality vote. In such instances, the Chairperson of the Board of Statutory Auditors shall be appointed by the Shareholders via a plurality vote based on voting rights.

The Chairperson of the Board of Statutory Auditors shall be the statutory auditor appointed by the minority slate, save for cases whereby either one or no slates have been submitted. Should that be the case, the Chairperson of the Board of Statutory Auditors shall be appointed by the Shareholders via a plurality vote based on voting rights.

Pursuant to said committee mandate the Board of Statutory Auditors is, among other things, tasked with monitoring:

- financial reporting processes;
- the effectiveness of the internal control, audit and risk management system;
- statutory audits of the annual and consolidated accounts;
- the independence of independent auditors, especially in respect of services extending beyond the scope of the independent audit.

The Board is also tasked with reporting to the Board of Directors on the outcome of independent audits and with submitting to the same Board the independent auditors' additional reports pursuant to article 11 of Regulation (EU) 537/2014, with any appropriate comments.

The Board of Statutory Auditors carries out the duties of Supervisory Body as set forth by Legislative Decree 231/2001 and as permitted by applicable rules and regulations and by the organisational, management and control model adopted by Nexi pursuant to Legislative decree 231/2001.

Any statutory auditor having a direct or indirect interest in respect of a specific Nexi transaction shall timely and fully report to the other statutory auditors and to the Chairperson as to the nature, the terms, the cause and scope of said interest.

In 2020 and up until time of publication the Board of Statutory Auditors met 18 times. All Board meetings are subject to the keeping of meetings and all such meetings were attended by all statutory auditors. The meetings were, depending on the agenda, and for the purposes of the audits, attended by the officers the internal control functions, the Financial Reports Manager and by the officers of other corporate functions. On average, the duration of said meetings was approximately two hours.

The Board regularly engages in information exchanges with the independent auditors and, generally in its entirety, attends the meetings of the Related Parties Committee, the Remuneration and Appointments Committee and of the Control, Risk and Sustainability Committee.

In 2020 and up until time of publication, the Board has attended 3 Shareholders' Meetings, 22 Board of Directors' meetings, 12 Control, Risk and Sustainability Committee meetings, all 14 Related Parties Committee meetings and all 9 Remunerations and Appointments Committee meetings.

The Board of Statutory Auditors – pursuant to the CNDCEC's Code of Conduct for the Board of Statutory Auditors at Listed Companies of April 26, 2018 and to the CNDCEC's paper Self-Assessments at the Board of Statutory Auditors of May 2019 – has carried out its scheduled self-assessment on its membership and activities, in keeping with which each statutory auditor was required to complete a questionnaire. The self-assessment's findings were the subject of a report submitted by the Chairperson of the Board of Statutory Auditors to the Board of Directors during the Board meeting of March 11, 2021. Findings relative to the Board's activities are positive overall, indicating that the Board has carried out its duties effectively and efficiently and pursuant to applicable rules and regulations.

As for membership, the findings show that:

- all members fulfil the requirements set forth by article 2399 of the Italian Civil Code;
- each member of the Board of Statutory Auditors fulfils the independence requirements set forth by domestic laws and regulations;
- the Board of Statutory Auditors meets diversity criteria in respect of gender and professional experience, backgrounds and expertise;
- every member of the Board of Statutory Auditors has a sound grounding and experience in many of the areas listed in the self-assessment questionnaire;

As for activities carried out in 2020, the findings show that:

- the size of the Board is adequate in respect of duties;

- the Board's membership is a balanced one and does not warrant supplementing in terms of professional expertise;
- all Board members state that the time available to them is adequate in respect of their appointments and given the broad scope and complexity of the duties, the Company's nature, size, business, operational structure and other characteristics;
- overall, the Board's activities have proved adequate in meeting the needs of Nexi;
- though reporting amongst the Board of Statutory Auditors and the other statutory bodies has proved adequate, with a view to pursuing ongoing improvement, timelier submittal of documents would be required;
- the Chairperson has played a key role;
- the Board assesses remuneration to be consistent with the activities carried out in 2020.

Looking forwards to 2021, the Board proposes that:

- Board membership be expanded in light of extraordinary operations envisaged in 2021 and entailing the Group's expansion in terms of size and operations;
- Board remunerations be increased in light of the greater commitments entailed by expected changes at the Group in 2021.

Board members have taken part in the Board of Directors' training programme (see paragraph 4.2).

The Board has submitted a formal proposal for further professional training and development in 2021, with a view to enhancing its performance with respect to:

- current market developments and the international outlook;
- sustainability (e.g. concerning sustainability planning and management);
- Nexi Group's organisational model.

The meetings of the Control, Risk and Sustainability Committee rank as the main platform for reporting amongst the key parties involved in internal control. Said meetings, as such, are always attended by the Board of Statutory Auditors and the officers of the internal control functions. The meetings thus allow for the constant exchange of any information underpinning the performance of all parties with internal control duties.

14 INVESTOR RELATIONS

Nexi engages in constant dialogue with its shareholders and investors and promotes regular meetings within financial community stakeholders.

With a view to ensuring proper management of investor relations, Nexi has appointed, effective as of April 1, 2019, Stefania Mantegazza as Investor Relations Officer.

Nexi has also added the "Investors" section to its corporate website, ensuring its accessibility and visibility. The section provides all information relevant to investors as well as to disclosure, and providing shareholders with a full and proper understanding of their rights.

15 SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Pursuant to article 9 of the Articles of Association, Shareholders' meetings are called whenever deemed necessary by the Board of Directors or whenever mandatory by Law.

Shareholders' meetings are to be hosted at the company's registered office or at any other venue designated by the Board of Directors, provided such venue is either in Italy or in the European Union.

Ordinary and extraordinary shareholders' meetings are held on the date set forth under the notice of call. The Board of Directors may provide for more than one call date, in such instances detailing the date of the second and, where relevant, the third call, within the notice of call. Once convened and legally constituted, ordinary and extraordinary shareholders' meetings shall pass resolutions in accordance with such majorities as set forth by Law

Shareholders' meetings are called by the Board of Directors upon providing notice of such meetings on the company's website and upon providing for all other call requirements set forth by laws and regulations in force at the time.

The company's financial statements are subject to approval by the shareholders and to that end shareholders' meetings must be called at least once a year, within 120 days of close of the company's financial year or, where article 2364(2) of the Italian Civil Code applies, within an extended term of 180 days, without prejudice to any other applicable deadlines set forth by laws and regulations in force from time to time.

Proceedings at Shareholders' Meetings are governed by the law, the Articles of Association and by the governing procedures document, the latter being available for consultation at <https://www.nexi.it/investor-relations/gruppo/governance/assemblee.html>. Shareholders' right to attend and speak is governed by articles 10, 11 and 12 of the aforementioned governing procedures.

The matter and scope of resolutions subject to a shareholders' vote are set forth by law and the Articles of Association.

Pursuant to article 10 of the Articles of Association, any persons with voting rights at a shareholders' meeting, subject to applicable provisions, also hold a right to speak at such meetings. Shareholders shall attest their right to speak and vote and the manner in which they wish to exercise them in accordance with the rules and regulations in force at the time. Furthermore, any persons with voting rights at a shareholders' meeting can choose to be represented by proxy in the manner and to the extent permissible by law. Any such arrangements are to be notified to the company at the certified email address provided in the shareholders' meeting notice, or in accordance with any other method therein specified. For the purposes any given shareholders' meeting, the company may designate one or more persons to act as proxy on behalf of shareholders, and the latter may provide said persons with voting instructions concerning all or some of the agenda items. The scope of the proxy arrangements is limited those agenda items for which instructions are provided. The parties designated by the company and the manner and method via which the proxy mandates are effected shall be detailed in the shareholders' meeting notice.

Pursuant to article 11 of the Articles of Association, shareholders' meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors and, should he or she fail or be unable to attend, he or she shall be replaced by the Deputy Chairperson of the Board of Directors (should only one such person be appointed) or by the most senior Deputy Chairperson (should more than one such person be appointed) or by the Chief Executive Officer. Failing that, the meeting shall be chaired by any such person as appointed by the majority of attending shareholders.

During shareholders' meetings the Chairperson shall be assisted by a secretary, who needn't be a shareholder, appointed by attending shareholders, except as provided for in article 2371(2) of the Italian Civil Code.

In 2020 two Shareholders' Meetings were held.

The first, and ordinary shareholders' meeting, was called to approved the Nexi's separate and consolidated financial statements as at December 31, 2019, the non-financial statements, proposals concerning the authorisation to purchase and dispose of treasury shares, the report on remuneration policy and compensations paid, the appointment of director to the Board of Directors following co-option.

The second, an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, was called to approve proposals to authorise the convertibility of the €500,000,000 1.75 per cent, Equity Linked Bonds due 2027 and the divisible share capital increase, excluding shareholder pre-emption rights, in service to the aforesaid bonds via the issue of ordinary shares.

In 2021, as at time of publishing, a shareholders' meeting was called to approve, on an extraordinary basis, the cross-border merger by incorporation of Nets Topco 2 Sarl into Nexi SpA, and to approve, on an ordinary basis, an increase in the number of directors at the Board of Directors from 13 to 15 and the subject to that, to approve the appointment of two directors effective as at the completion date of the cross-border merger by incorporation of Nets Topco 2 Sarl into Nexi SpA.

Documents relating to the shareholders' meetings are published and made available to the public in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations.

Respectively, the above shareholders' meetings were attended by seven and four directors (including the Chairperson) and by all statutory auditors.

16 FURTHER GOVERNING PROCEDURES

The governing procedures are those presented in the hereby report. No further governing procedures have been adopted.

17 CHANGES FOLLOWING THE REPORTING PERIOD

Except for such developments as are detailed in the hereby report, no changes have occurred in the structure of Nexi's corporate governance structure.

18 COMMENTS TO THE LETTER OF THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE OF DECEMBER 22, 2020

During the Committee meeting of January 28, 2021, at the Chairperson's invitation, the Nexi Board of Directors examined the contents of the letter of December 22, 2020 from the Chairperson of the Corporate Governance Committee.

The letter was further circulated to the Chairperson of the Board of Statutory Auditors for the purposes of further examination.

During the meeting the committee Chairperson highlighted the contents of the new Corporate Governance Code, as approved by the Corporate Governance Committee in January 2020, compliance with respect to which is to be reviewed as part of the Report on Corporate Governance and Controlling Structures of Nexi due for publication in 2022.

The Code details such principles and recommendations as applicable to Italian entities and as instrumental to the pursuit and attainment of the core value of sustainable business success by consolidating best practices and fostering long-term value creation in respect of shareholders and of the interests of all major stakeholders.

During the meeting the Chairperson presented the Committee's findings in respect of the monitoring of such practices as were implemented by the relevant entities in response to recommendations delivered the year prior by the Corporate Governance Committee (8th Report on Implementations of the Corporate Governance Code). In respect of said findings, the Chairperson highlighted Nexi's full and proper compliance.

An analysis carried out with the support of the Self-Assessment Advisor showed that all recommendations issued by the Corporate Governance Committee have been adopted and implemented and that continuing improvement is underway.

Attention was further drawn to the following:

Sustainability: the Nexi Board of Directors in performing its duties with respect to matters pertaining to sustainability is supported by the Control, Risk and Sustainability Committee established on February 25, 2019. The Committee is tasked with inquiry, consulting and proposal duties for and on behalf of the Board of Directors, details of which are provided in its governing rules and procedures. By strengthening its governance, Nexi has testified to its commitment towards building on sustainability as a strategic pillar.

The above is also the product of a process of consolidation with respect to a number of virtuous practices that had already been put in place by Nexi, central to which is the assignment of lead role to the Board of Directors in the pursuit of sustainable success.

The findings issuing from the Board of Directors' 2020 Self-Assessment confirm the Board's awareness as to the relevance of issues pertaining to sustainability, security and the environment. Ad hoc ESG sessions were held, witnessing suitable levels of Group-wide commitment and engagement.

Directors agree on wishing to afford sustainability issues more space in within the Board and the Committee agendas so as to further consolidate the current focus on topics thereto relevant and to set new plans and initiatives in motion.

Briefings prior to Board Meetings: the Board rates as aligned with best practices and with the requests of the Corporate Governance Committee.

To ensure timely, full, adequate and intelligible briefings, any supporting documents are:

- prepared by the Secretariat of the Board of Directors, complete with summaries for each of the agenda items and
- numerically and descriptively detailed, in-depth and relevant reports, which are essential to gaining of a full and proper understanding of the items subject to a resolution;
- made available to directors and auditors, three to five days prior to meetings, via a password-protected mobile app granting them exclusive access to the relevant documents prior to and during Board meetings;
- stored and made available on the basis of clearance levels which vary depending on their confidentiality classification.

The 2020 Board Review reveals consistent levels of satisfaction with respect to the deadlines subject to which documents are forwarded and with respect to the quality and level of detail of reports. Furthermore, access to and consultation of the documents in their digital form is made possible by secure platform.

Full confidentiality in respect of such documents is guaranteed and, as such, is not a current concern at the Board.

Compliance with independence criteria:

within Nexi's current Board of Directors no compliance failures have occurred in respect of independence requirements.

Pursuant to article 12 of the Articles of Association, "The Board of Directors, based on information provided by board members, shall carry out a yearly appraisal as to members' continued fulfilment of independence requirements; said members shall, at any rate and pursuant to the corporate governance rules, inform without delay as to events leading to a loss of independence or any existing grounds for ineligibility or incompatibility."

Hence, the Board is tasked with carrying out in-depth appraisals, above and beyond any mere procedural requirement.

None of the criteria set forth by law have ever been the subject of compliance failures, and such procedures as are in place to ascertain prospective failures in that respect have been positively appraised by the Board of Statutory Auditors.

Nexi is set to define internal quantitative benchmarks concerning independence.

Self-assessment at the Board of Directors:

on the subject of evaluations as to the Board's engagement and contributions with respect to the process of defining strategic guidelines, the Committee's Chairperson highlighted ongoing activities and Directors' sustained focus throughout each session. As for board evaluation, a standard procedure at Nexi, the process has been entrusted to a leading independent consulting firm, thus ensuring that evaluations are thorough and carried out to the highest of standards.

Director appointments and succession:

the Chairperson drew attention to the Remuneration and Appointments Committee's duties of inquiry and proposal. The latter duties, he stressed, though incumbent on both remuneration and appointments are carried out and treated by said Committee as separate, evidence as to which is its distinct and detailed treatment of each within the annual corporate governance report.

As for said Committee's membership moving forwards, next year the Board will face a number of compliance requirements, among which those dictating changes to the allocation of duties as a result of changes in the structure of ownership. As for succession procedures pertaining to the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairperson highlighted Nexi's adoption of a plan detailing procedures applicable whereby the CEO should cease to hold office.

Remuneration policy:

with reference to the remuneration of non-executive directors and of the committee's members, the Corporate Governance Committee has drawn attention to the fact that such remuneration should be evaluated based on the commitments, demands and responsibilities that such appointments entail.

At Nexi, independent non-executive directors serve within the Board's committees, and are called upon to take on a heightened burden of inquiry, proposals and consulting. Each year, as well as attending and preparing between 14 and 16 Board of Directors' meetings, said directors' engagements include between 8 and 10 Control, Risk and Sustainability Committee meetings, between 7 and 8 Remuneration and Appointments Committee meetings, between 6 and 9 Related Parties Committee meetings.

As for the members of the Board of Statutory Auditors, whose burden of duty and responsibility includes liaising with regulatory and oversight bodies, it is worth taking into account the constant support they provide in respect of the Board's committees by attending and contributing to each and every meeting.

In the wake of the 2020 Board of Directors' Self-Assessment, Nexi, with the support of consultants Spencer Stuart, has performed a benchmark analysis which, given Nexi's market capitalisation, is referenced against the top 40 companies listed on the FTSE MIB.

On a closing note, having itself and its Committees delivered fully with respect to its duties of compliance and service, the Board of Directors is committed to continuing on its current virtuous path, so as to ensure Nexi's full alignment with the new Corporate Governance Code by bringing about such changes to its corporate governance and internal rules and procedures as are required in principle and, whereby evidenced in practice, shall be required.
